TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

You are about to embark upon a tour of Technical High School, with yours truly, Techson, as your official guide. Due to the magic of photography you will have a chance to observe, first hand, the busy life of your school. As an unseen observer, you can relive a full year of school activities in half an hour. Within just a few seconds you can sit in on an Ethics Committee meeting, recapture the spirit of a football game, or get trampled by the lunch rush.

And now, I present to you your 1962 Techoes, with the hope that you will find great enjoyment, today and in the days to come, within these pages.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

WHAT COMES TO US . . . .

when we think of a school? Does it emerge as a name, a place, or a memory? We might imagine our school blossoming forth from the shapeless ground of our minds as a feeling, an emotion shadowed under the complexity of life and thought. In pensive meditation or when the breath of time blows wisps of trouble we find within ourselves this feeling, part of which is formed by our school.

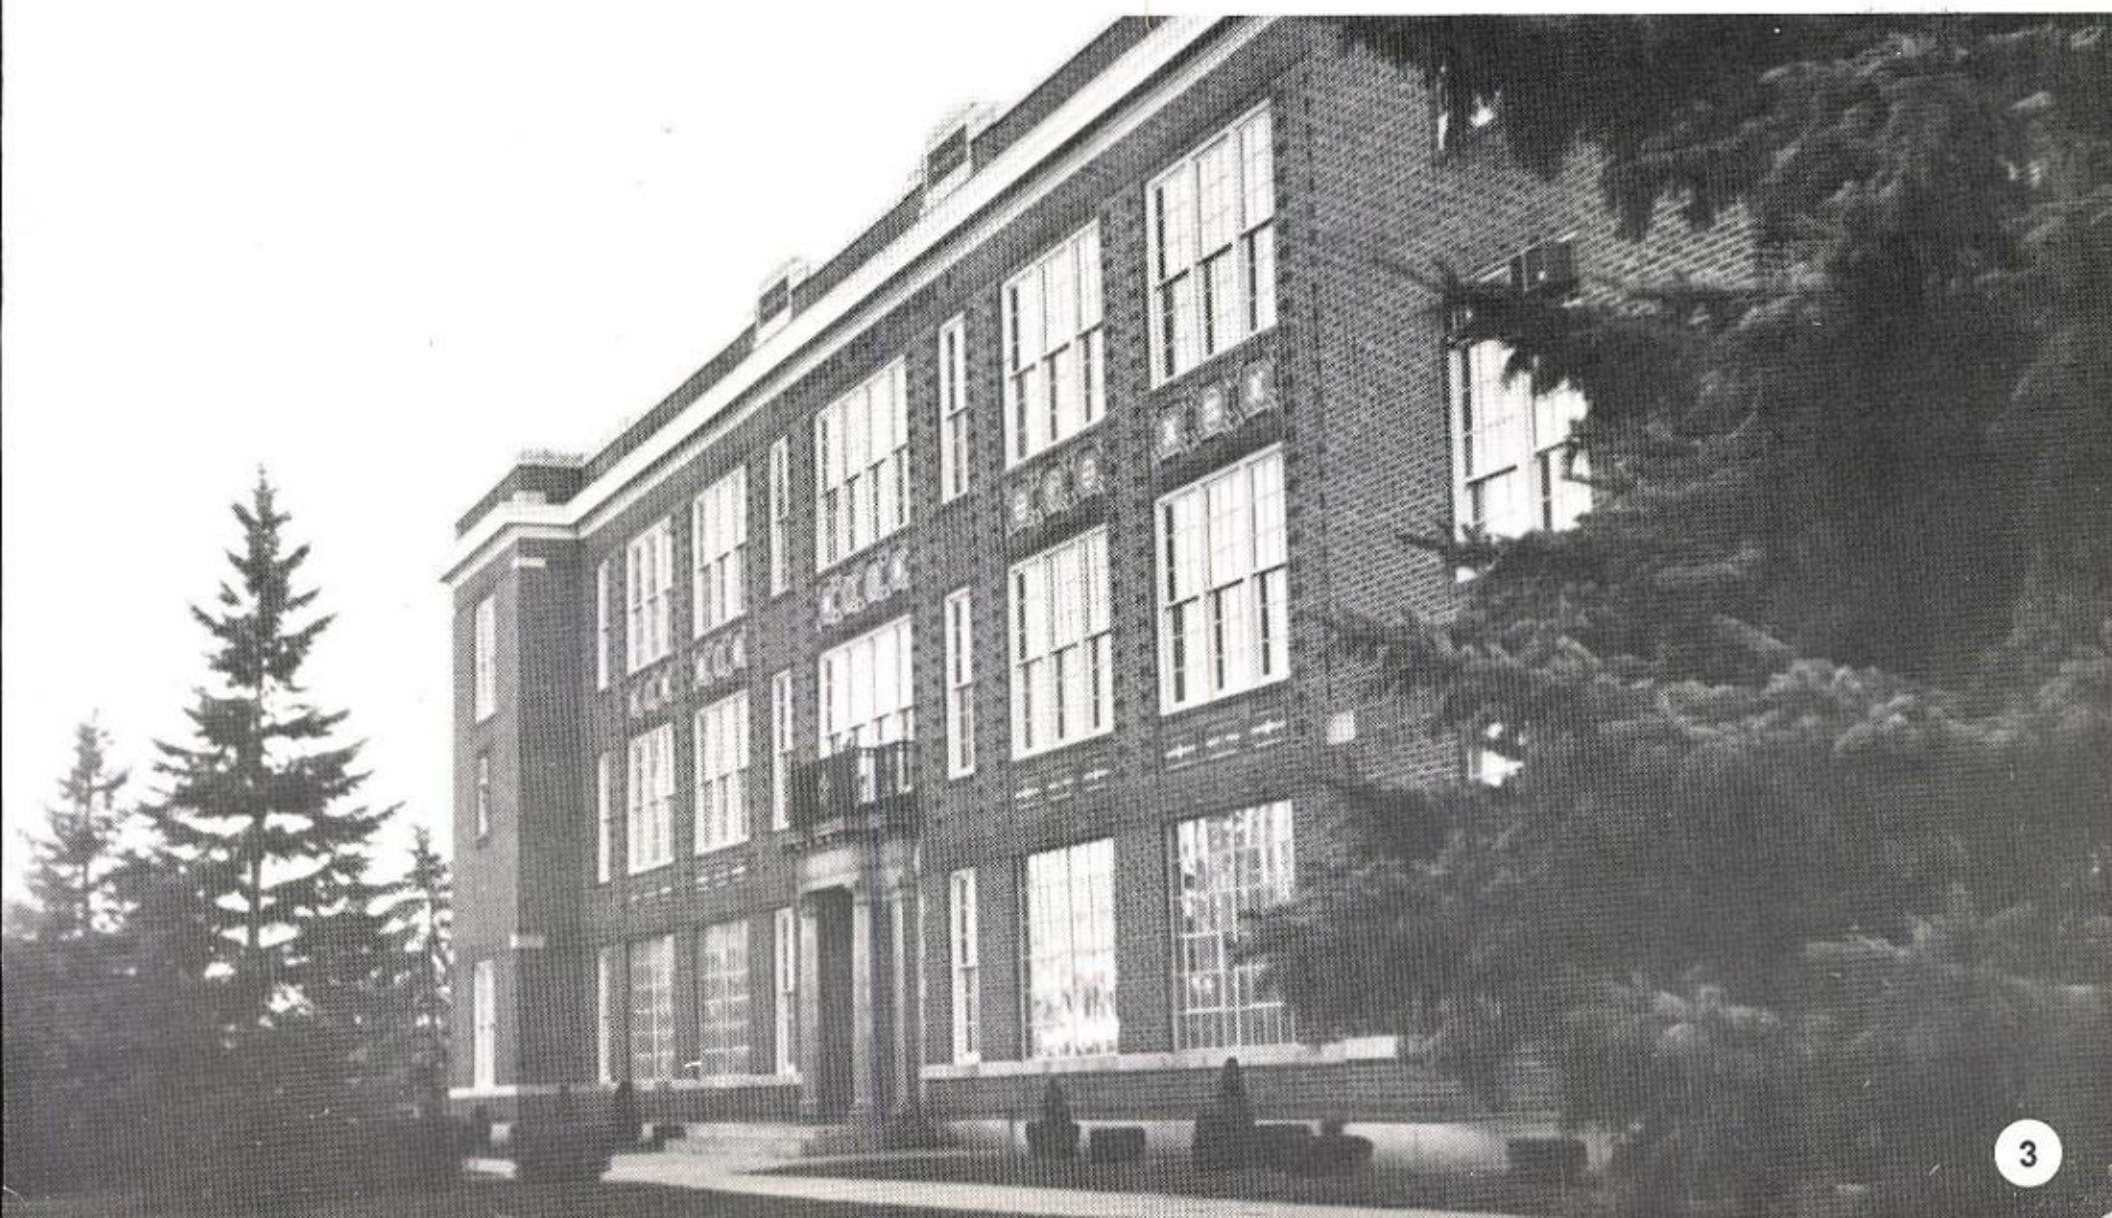
MUCH LIKE A PERSON . . . .

a school becomes what we desire it to be. To us it may mean trials and understanding; a definite portion of the sum of our being is contained within that mass of brick. Ultimately, we may envision that unknowable quality termed "life" and find within our school the whole of mankind.

OUR DEDICATION . . . .

of the annual results, in part, from the concept of finding extended depth in a segment of our environment. With this in mind we proudly dedicate the annual to an important part of our school, the Technical High School Senior Class of 1962.

Lee Johnson



The past school year has provided an opportunity for both faculty and students to benefit from the practical and formal education offered here at Tech.

Improvements seen in the halls this year have been numerous and not all surprising to the students. Increased enrollment has necessitated the addition of several new classrooms and the Lettermen's Club added new trophy cases at the entrance to the north gymnasium.

School spirit was tremendous this year. It was clearly evident in the response of the student body and the teams. The Football team charged through with the Conference Championship, followed closely by the outstanding records posted by all the athletic teams.

How many of you will remember the long hours away from class, suffering through an assembly, as you hung in the comfortable seating of the Auditorium? Or will you remember the "All School Picture", when everyone huddled miserably in front of the school and managed a stiff retreat after the photographer came down from his "High Horse"?

Each day is full of small events which help to form and strengthen our love and deep respect for Tech High.

We all owe an untold amount of gratitude to Mr. Herda who displayed such a sincere interest in the activities of Tech and her students.

The Tech English Department includes more than the principles of grammer. It also strives for the correct application of the enjoyment of prose and poetry.

Junior English classes study American Literature such as The Yearling, Our Town, The House of Seven Gables, or The Red Badge of Courage.

Senior English students read British Literature with emphasis placed on Macbeth. It is required that all seniors write a term paper.

A class offered to juniors, in addition to their English class, is Journalism. In this class they are taught the basic fundamentals of journalism so that they can work on The Tech and Techoes.

All Tech students are offered speech classes in which they have an opportunity to gain confidence and experience in public speaking.

FUTURE CAREERS DEMAND SCIENCE, MATH CREDITS

Today there is an ever growing emphasis on mathematics and science training. With the important projects carried on by the mathematics and science fields, we need people who are trained to carry on these projects, such as developing and improving our rocket, satellite, and missile programs. We also need people who are qualified to make advancements in the field of medicine and in our everyday living. These are a few of the reasons why our high school is promoting a more advanced study of the sciences.

Here at Tech we have the opportunity to further our studies of mathematics and science through our well-equipped and well-staffed classrooms. We are offered courses in geometry, algebra, trigonometry, and S.M.S.G., as well as the major science courses which include the biologies, chemistry, and physics. These classes give students the opportunity to apply themselves, and to acquire an understanding of these courses.

These courses provide an important background for those students planning to further their education in college. Those students who do not go on to college still find this mathematics and science background very helpful to them in their everyday living.

Those students interested in vocal music can join the senior or sophomore choruses. Their main practices are for the Christmas concert, one special concert, and for making a record.

If a Tech student finds his interest is in art, he may take the art courses offered. In our art department a student may do almost any kind of art work that he would like to do.

At the top of the list of special services at Tech is our counseling program. This department helps students to plan their programs. All students are encouraged to see one of the counsellors at least twice a year.

Another service is the home-bound program. Mrs. Detra goes to all the homes of Tech students who are unable to attend school. This enables the student to keep up all of his school classes.

Speech clinic is also offered at Tech. It is taught by Mrs. McDermot.

"Good Morning!" is the familiar phrase that is heard by all Tech students every morning by Ken Netz.

QUEEN JEAN

The Homecoming Court: J. Sovada, B. Schmitt, W. Lenzmeir, M. Anderson, 1960 queen B. Albers, Queen Jean Folsom, M. Lacher, B. Lachelt, P. Rogosheske, S. Millett, D. Youel.

QUEEN JEAN HEADS HOMECOMING ROYALTY

After raining for the week preceding Homecoming, reluctantly though obligingly it ceased for the activities.

The day was begun with the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. Jean Folsom was chosen by football co-captains, Bill Schmitt and Phil Rogosheske, to reign over the activities of the day. A very happy, tearful Jean watched and listened as the boys' chorus sang the traditional "Oh Honey" and the rest of the assembly continued. Mr. Carl Gulbrandson and Mrs. Jim Chisholm (Gail Oberg) — both from the class of 1956 — spoke to the students.

A beautiful tribute to the flag given by Lee Johnson took the place of the "rained-out" flag ceremony. The senior speech class presented the skit, "Axel and his Tiger."

Substitute cheerleaders, K. Pattison and P. Zaier help K. Berg and J. Larson rouse spirit during the parade.

Homecoming events began Thursday evening with the renewal of the bonfire, which hasn't taken place for several years. The students worked in the rain to make the pile near the Tenth Street bridge. Nature was kind enough to stop the rain for the activities Thursday evening.

After the bonfire the students went to the Tech parking lot, where the street dance was held. The Master of Ceremonies, Dick Kleinbaum, interviewed each of the five candidates.

The chilly and windy Homecoming parade was held after school. The junior class won the float contest with their float "Boot Brainerd." Charles Milligan was rated first in the decorated car division.

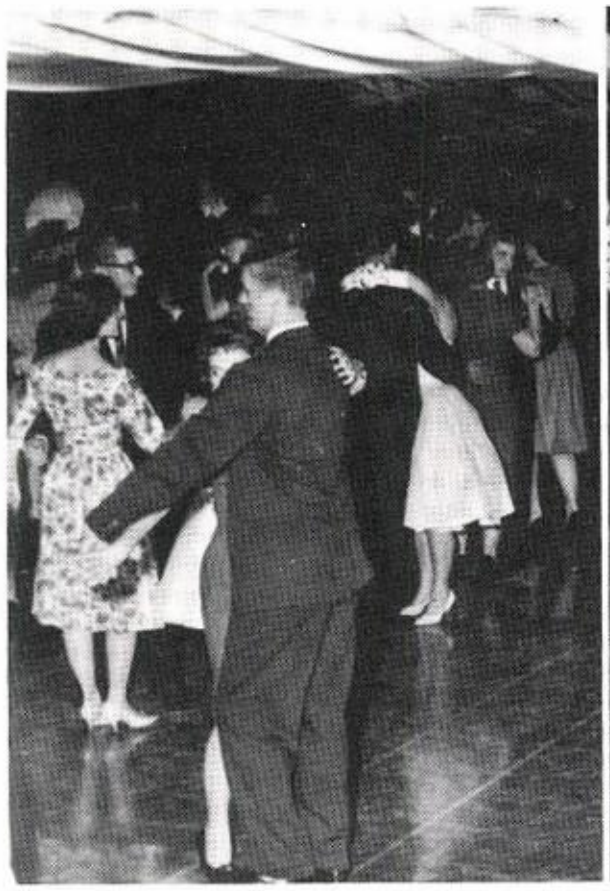
The highlight of the day came when Tech defeated the notorious Brainerd Warriors by a score of 19-6.

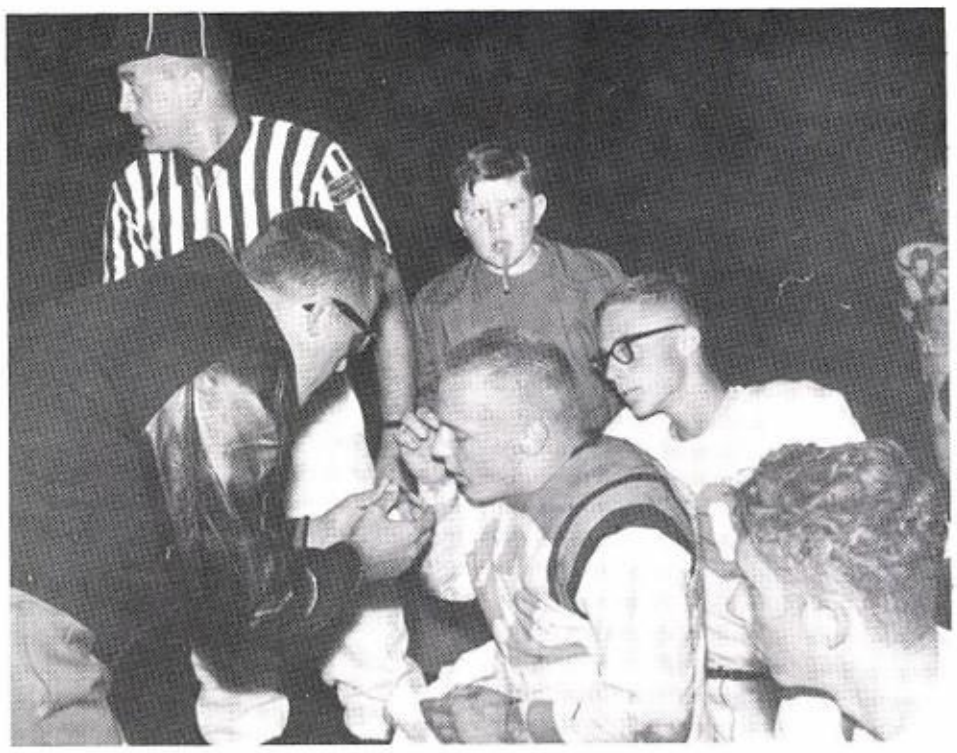
Despite the dreary weather, the spirit of the students was at its highest ebb. The enthusiasm was great. The team, students, and faculty had been anticipating this game for a year. The Homecoming dance followed the Tiger triumph.

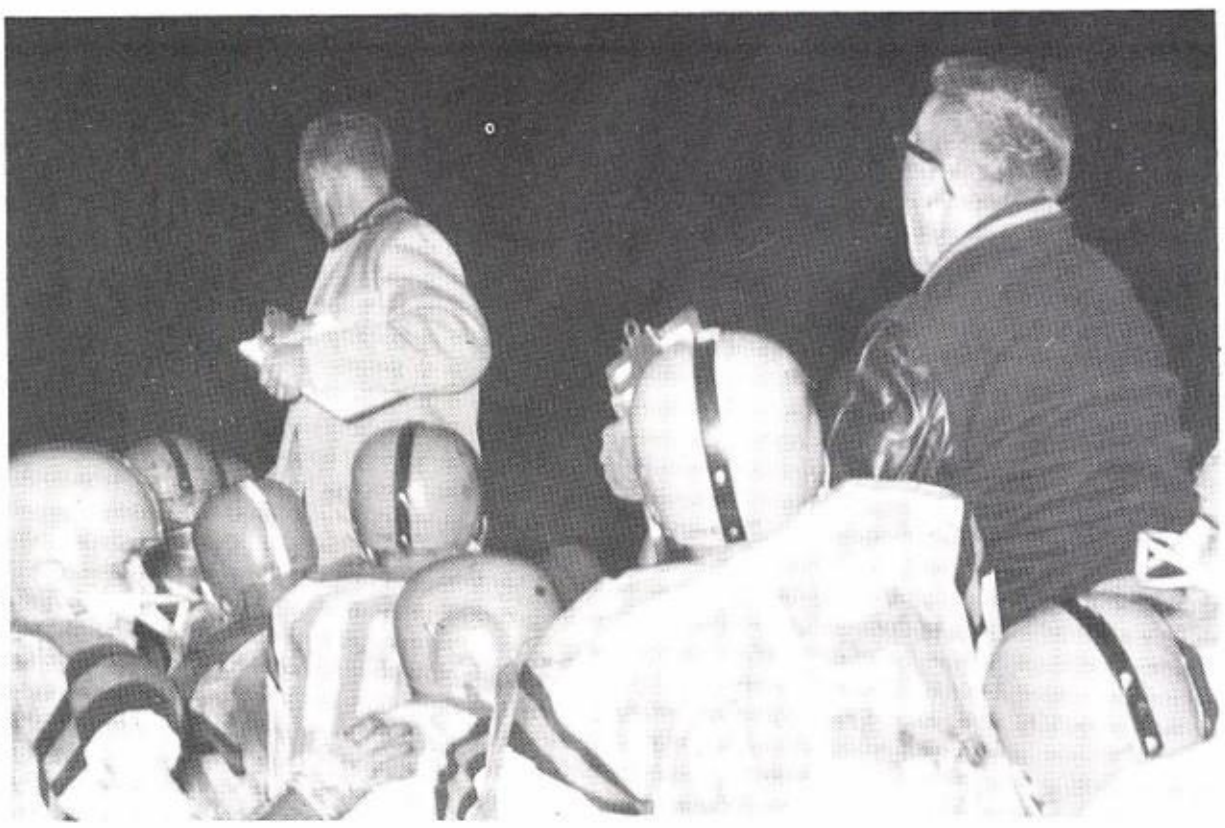
ABOVE: A favorite event, the bonfire, was brought back this year. The rain stopped in time for the pile to be lit by the queen candidates.

BELOW: The big secret is revealed as football co-captains B. Schmitt and P. Rogosheske choose the queen, Jean Folsom.

THRILLS, TENSION PREVAIL THROUGHOUT THE EXCITING EVENING



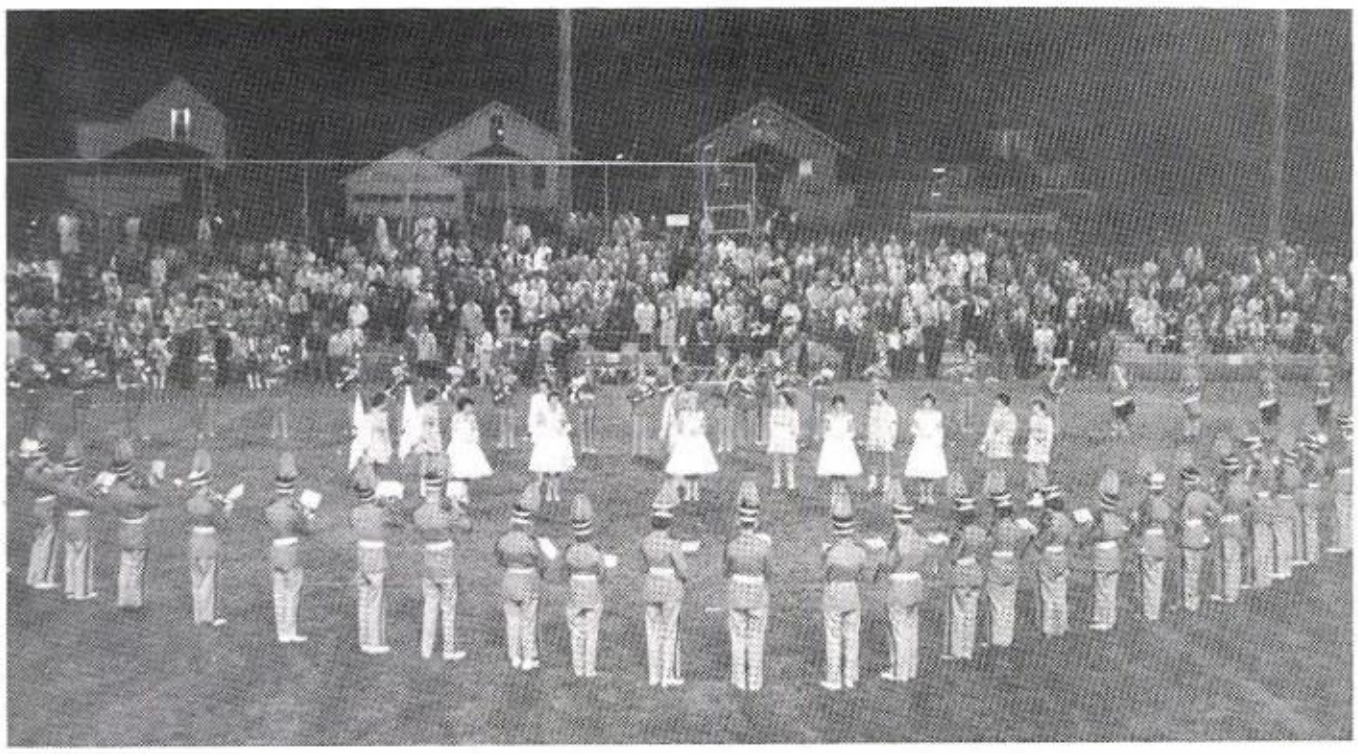




TOP: The excitement of the Tiger win spilled over onto the dance, making the atmosphere friendly to the alumni.

MIDDLE: A spectator's compact is held by Coach Frantti to aid B. Schmitt in finding his contact lense — "lost" in his eye.

BOTTOM: Coaches Nylund and Frantti are carried off of the field by jubilant players.



TOP: Homecoming queen and attendants are honored during half-time ceremonies.

MIDDLE: The strained game commands almost all of the tense players' exhausting attention as the score ties.

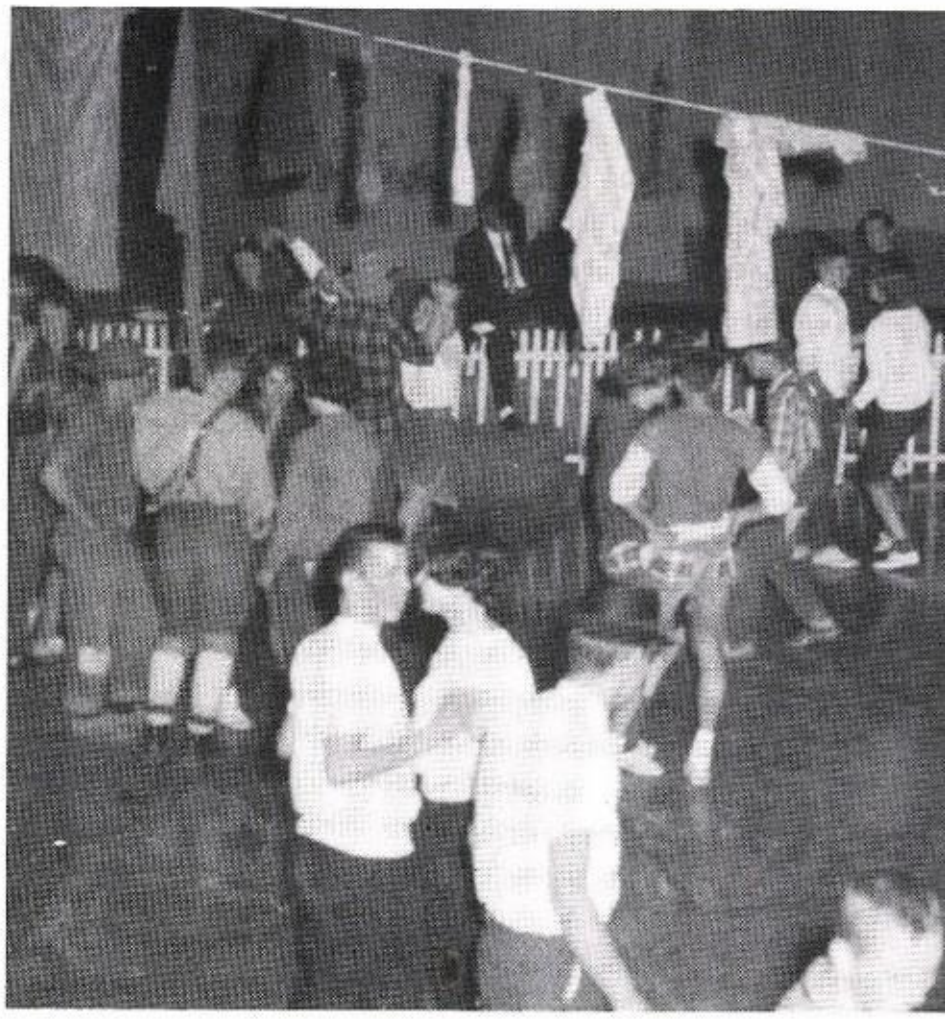
FESTIVITIES BUILD TO A SWELLING TRIUMPHANT CLIMAX

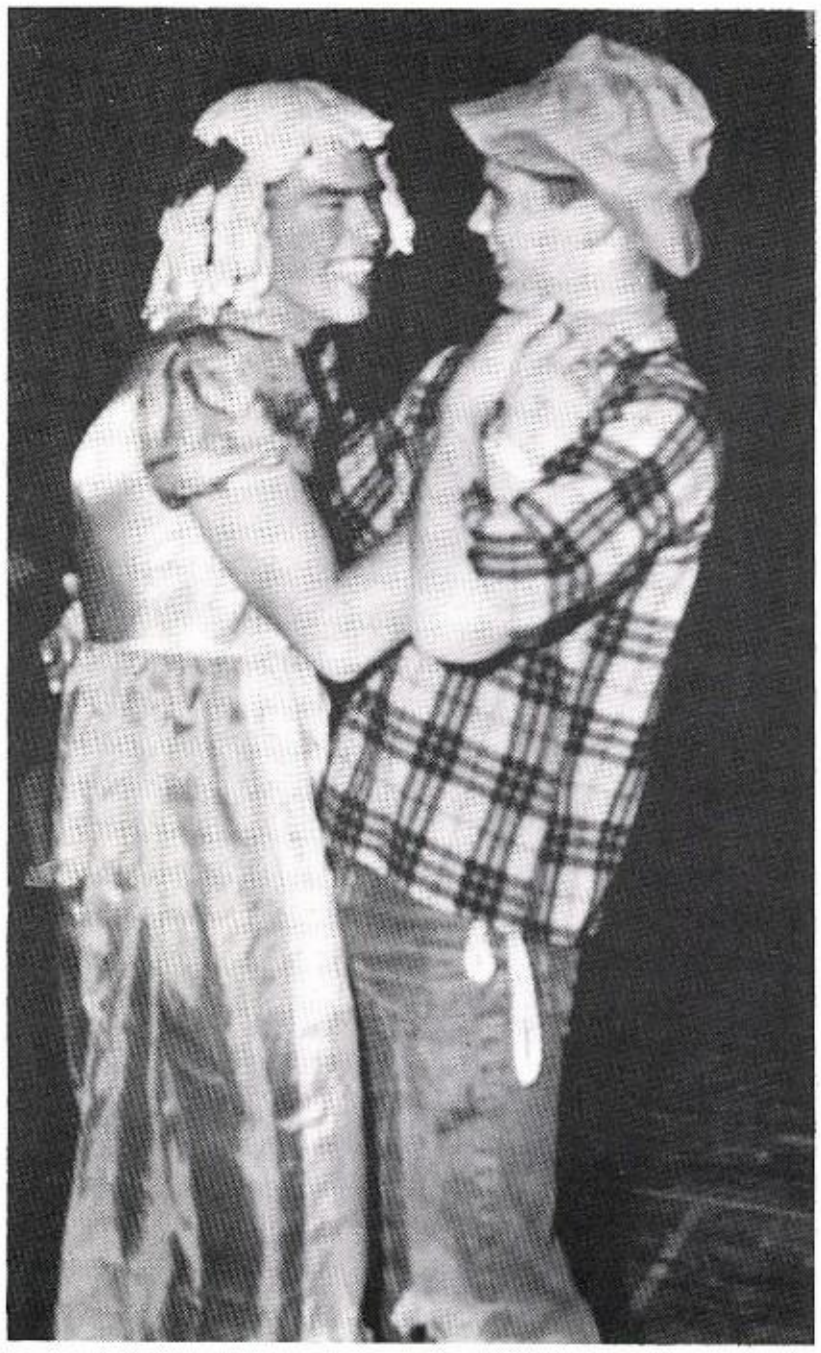
GALS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ANNUAL EVENT TO NAB A MAN



As usual one of the most popular and most enjoyable events of the school year is the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. At this night of "Dogpatch Fun," the girls are the masters (just for this one night), in that they ask their favorite fella, open all the doors for him, and even foot the bill for the affair.

The very casual dress included anything from jeans and bermudas to long, red underwear. Adding to the already hill-billy atmosphere, bales of hay were strewn around the gym floor for comfortable resting places; and appropriate decorations were everywhere.

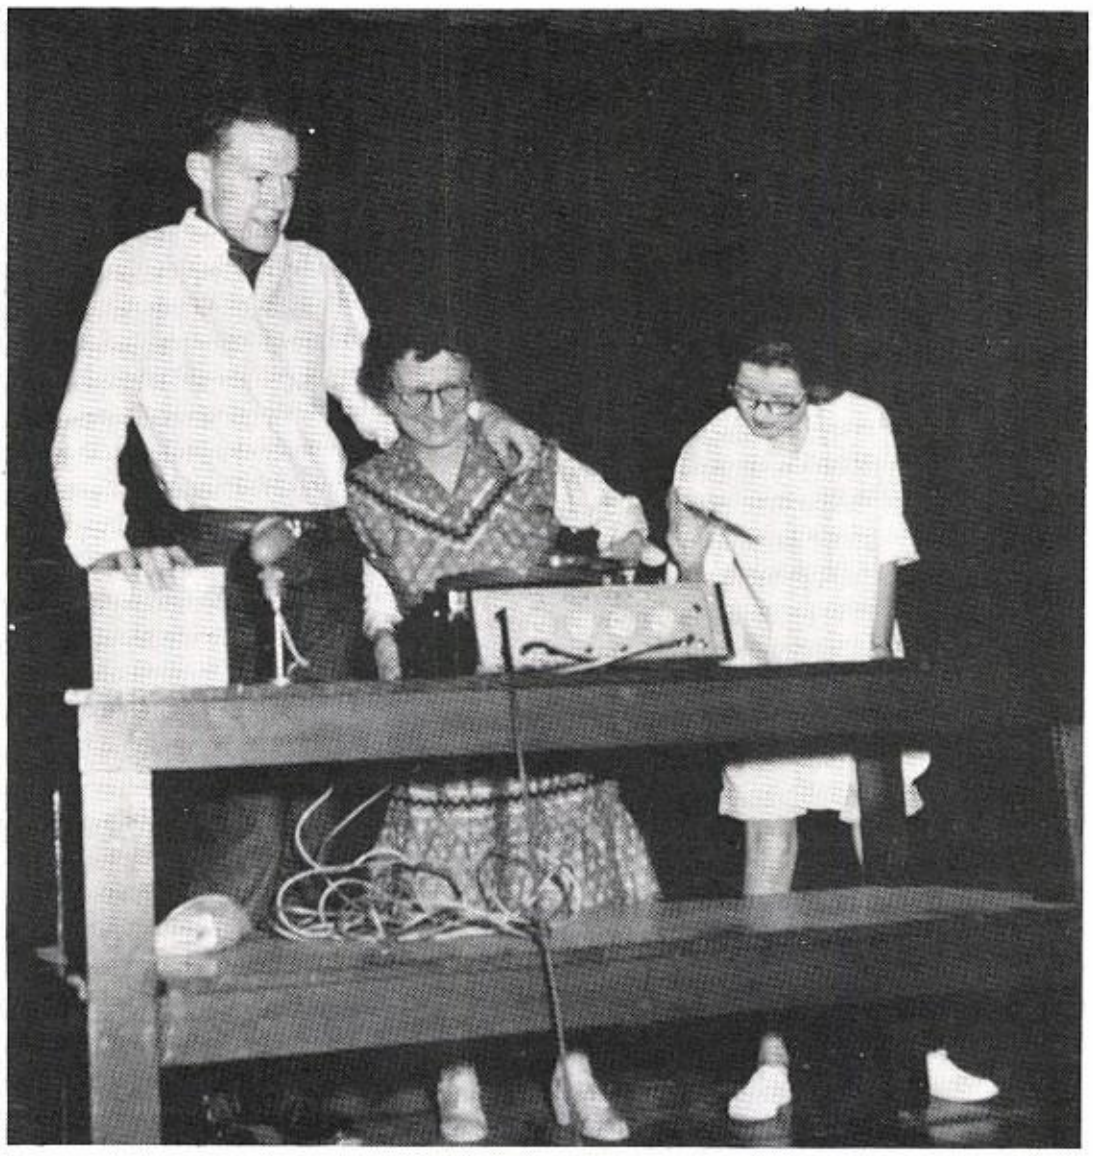
Acting as record spinners for the dance were Mr. Coskran and Miss Bacon. Mr. Behrens played the part of "Marryin' Sam" and did his usual fine job in this very important position.



RIGHT: T. Shaughnessy dances with Miss "Henrietta" Uberecken and admires her golden curls.

Amidst the clatter of hay and winter underwear, the merry couples danced in the "relaxed" atmosphere.

Marryin' Sam, alias Mr. Behrens, performs the "solemn" marriage of T. Shaughnessy and his date.



The long and short of the Tech faculty held the positions of disc jockeys for the event. Here, Mr. Coskran and Miss Bacon are assisted by M. Muldoon.

Moore, pose as the nativity. BELOW RIGHT: Khalid Whyne speaks on the Moslem activities during this time of the year.

ASSEMBLIES ADD SPICE TO TECHITES WEEK

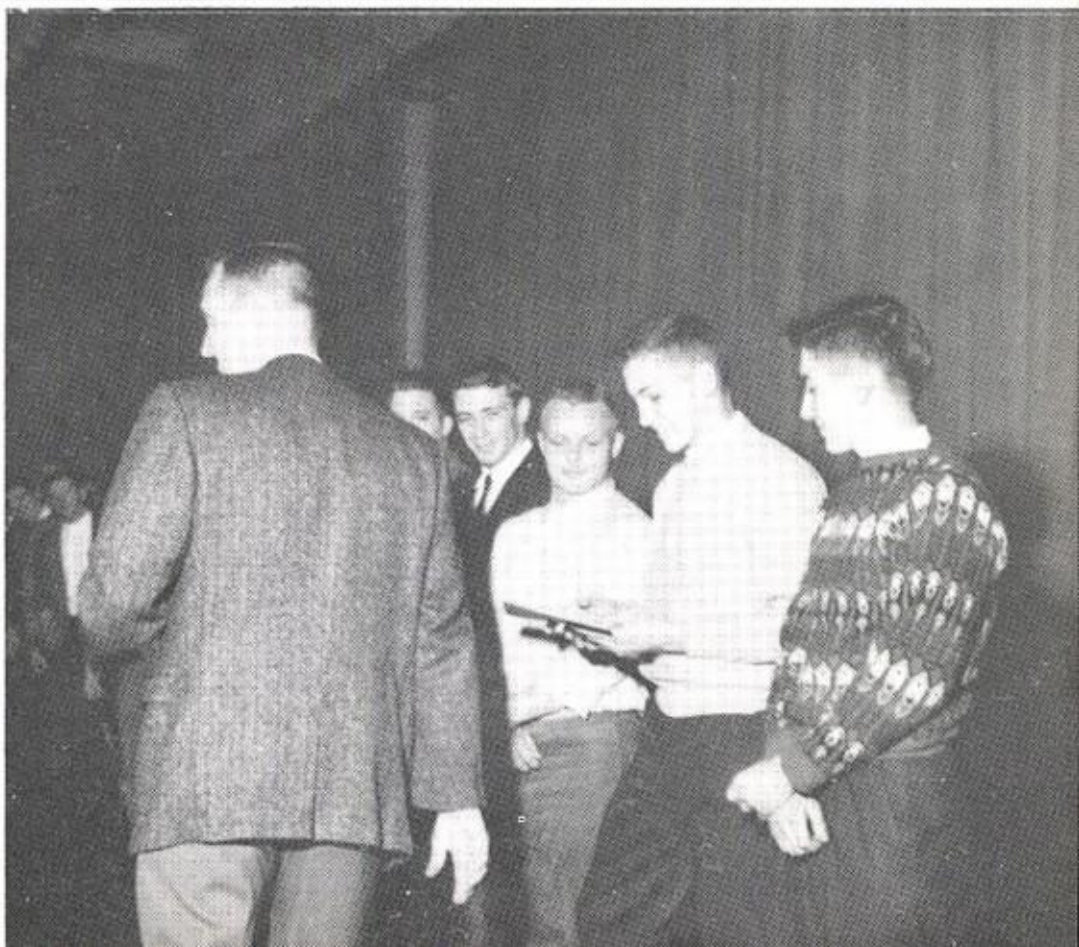
The weekly hour set aside on Friday mornings for the entertainment of Tech students is a welcomed occurrence.

Talent for the programs is drawn from the students, faculty, and professional entertainers sponsored by the U. of M. or other organizations. The professional acts range from scientific themes to that of human rights.

The Charity Drives Committee presented assemblies to open its drives. Junior Red Cross presented an effective variety show of local acts. The open Student Council meeting was extremely successful with much participation. Thanksgiving and Christmas programs presented the more serious view of student life.

The annual faculty pepfest was as tremendous as ever, bringing out the best in all.

The concluding assembly was the Honors Day.



All Sports Day Royalty: M. Lacher, K. Helgeson, B. Schmitt, B. Krause, L. Knaffla, King Phil and Queen Sue, G. Johnson, W. Lenzmeier, M. Peterson, M. Anderson, M. Cairns. Missing Bill Baker.

Past royalty crown the newly chosen King Phil Rogosheske, Queen Sue Millett.

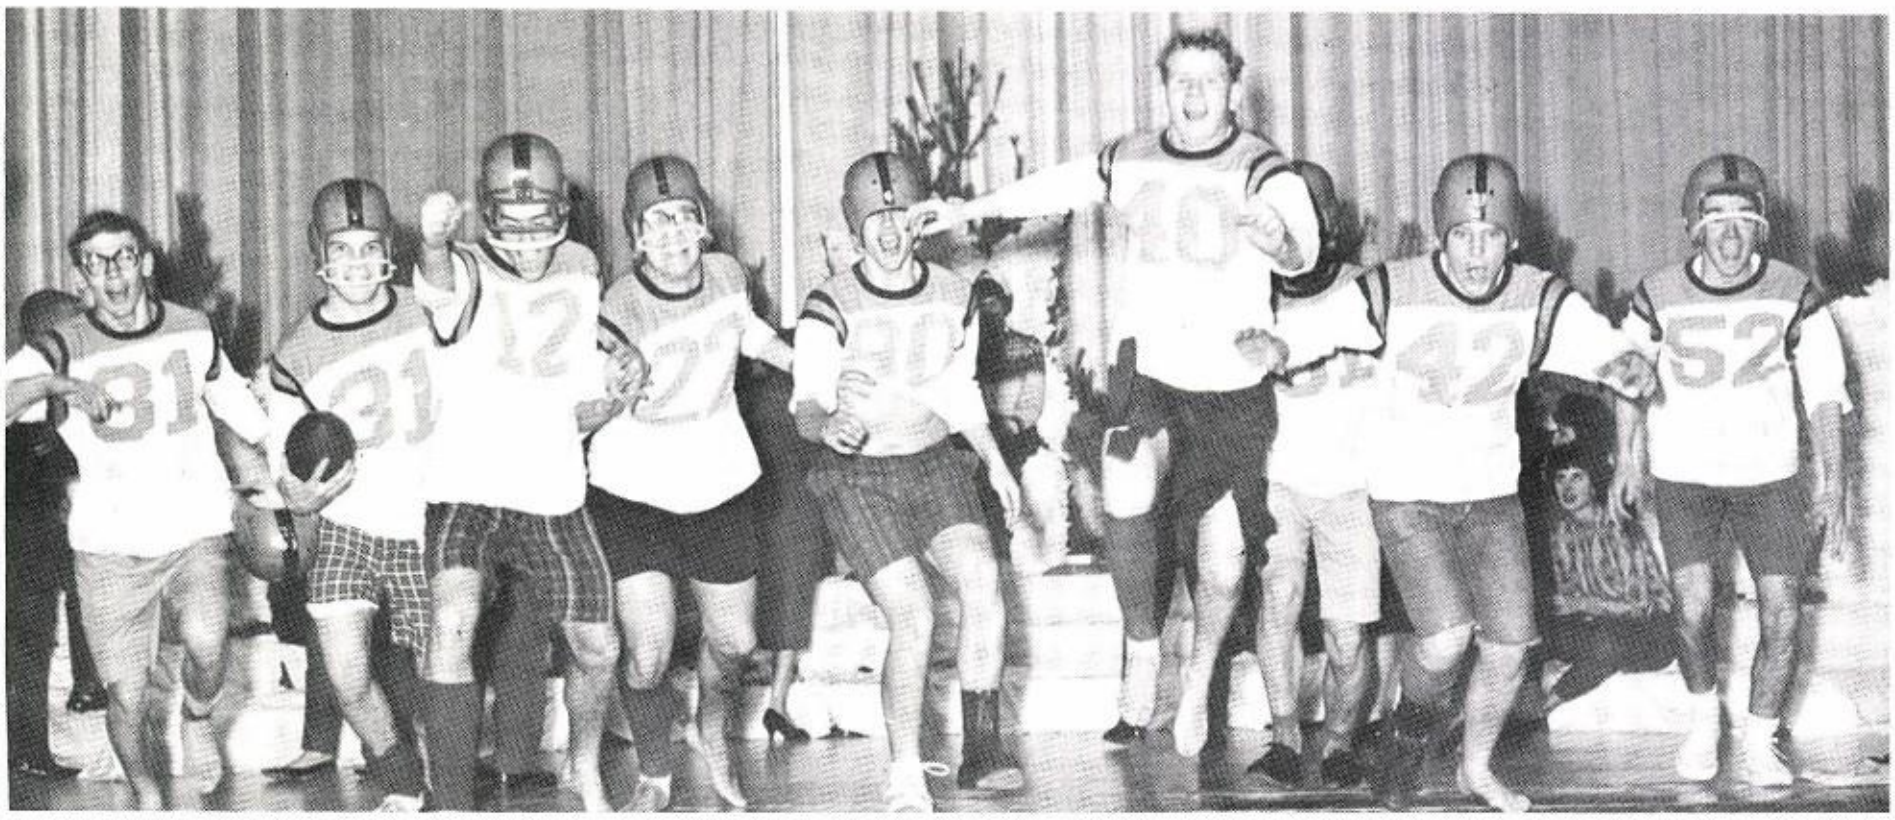
ROYALTY IS CHOSEN AMID SNOWFLAKE SET

Amid a beautiful winter setting of pine trees, snow and snowflakes 1961 Queen Gail Johnson, and 1960 King Louie Knafla crowned the 1962 Queen Sue Millett and King Phil Rogosheske. The audience approved with overwhelming applause as junior pages Gail Peterson and Kent Helgeson presented the couple with shining identification bracelets, as a souvenir of their reign.

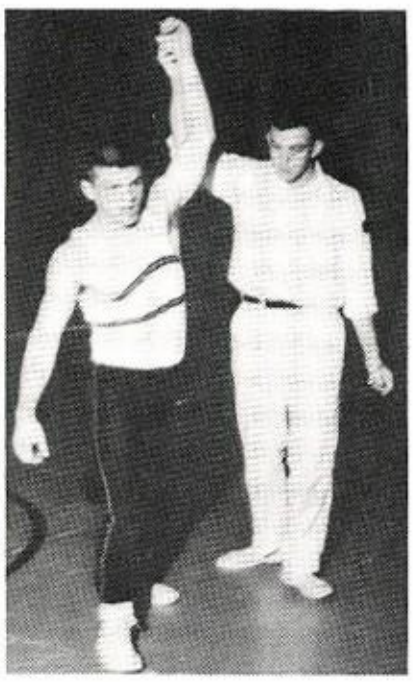
Following the coronation, Mr. Herda welcomed the students and wished all Tech Sportsmen good luck in the day's games. Dick Luckemeyer, Tech alumnus and teacher at South, presented his reaction of All Sports Day to students, faculty and guest. Later, enthusiastic cheerleaders led all Techites in a rousing round of cheers to urge all teams — swimming, wrestling, and basketball — to glorious victory.

After the recessional of King Phil and Queen Sue and their court, the assembly closed with the Tech Alma Mater.

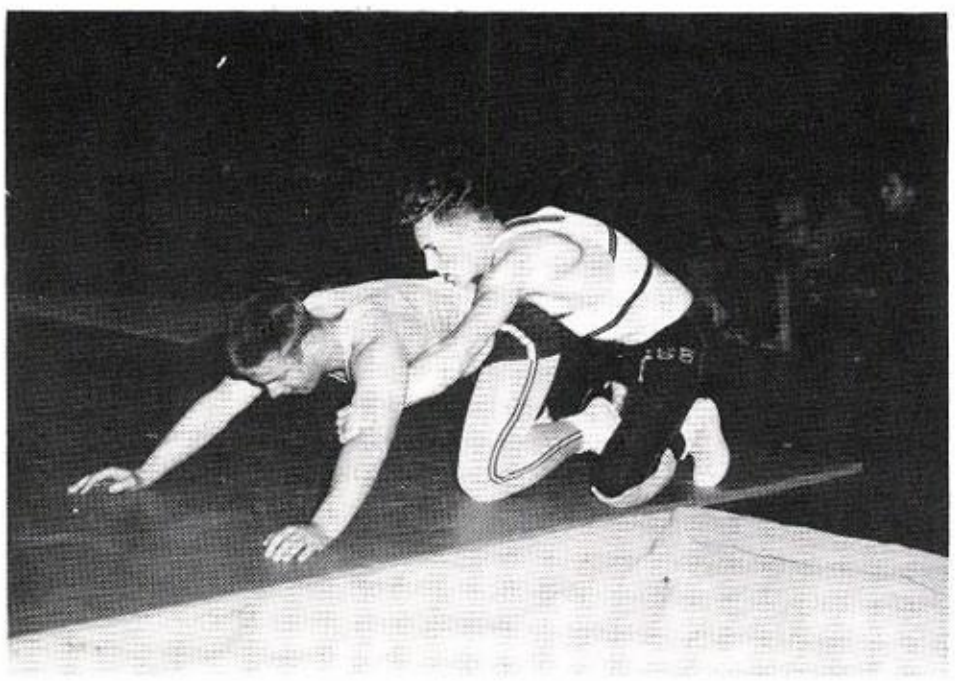
Techites filed from the North Auditorium with eagerness to attend each athletic event and urge all Tech Sportsmen on to victory.



Conference football champs had to receive recognition at All Sports Day. They added spark to the assembly with their version of a "chorus line" ending "in a bound" for the spectators.



B. Baker is acclaimed victor of his match.



D. Miller works toward his win in the "165" division against Crosby-Ironton.

Coach Kiffmeyer concentrates on his wrestling moves.

RIGHT: Captain Jim Pelissier heads for his finish in the breast-stroke.

ALL SPORTS DAY ACTIVITIES ARE SUCCESS

They're off! The victorious game starts with the jump by center Bruce Talbert.

There goes another one!

All Sports Day competition began with an exciting wrestling meet. Our Tiger matmen started the day off by defeating Crosby 25-14.

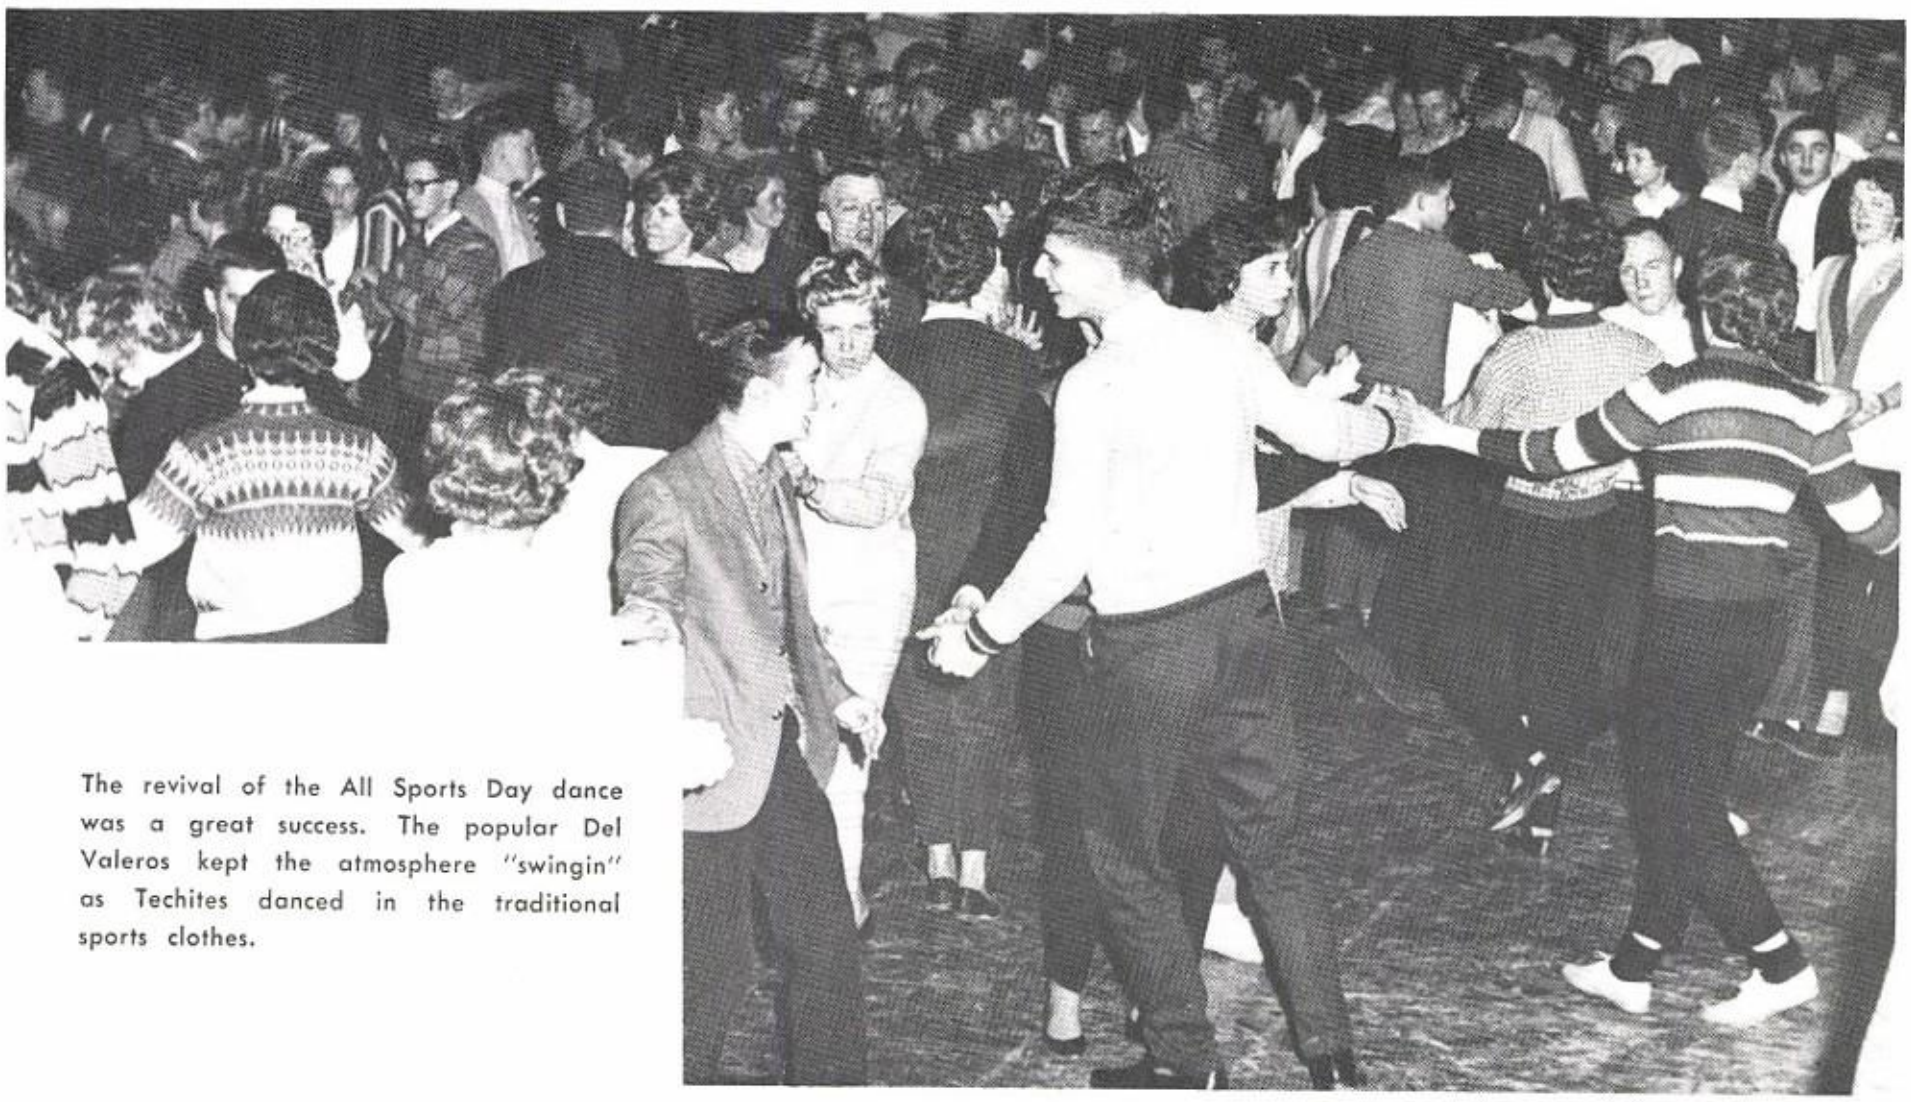
Techites, many of them witnessing their first swimming meet, flocked to the South Junior High pool to support this newest sport. Victory was ours as the Tech splashers beat Henry 61-33.

Indoor recreation was provided in the south gymnasium. Games included volleyball, table tennis, and other indoor sports.

Evening events began with the "B" squad basketball game against Aitkin. The bucketmen skillfully handed Aitkin a 40-34 defeat.

To make for a completely victorious day the Tech "A" squad easily won a victory over Aitkin 73-59. Tigerettes entertained the crowd during half time.

A dance followed the game, adding just the right touch to Victorious All Sports Day 1962.



The revival of the All Sports Day dance was a great success. The popular Del Valeros kept the atmosphere "swingin" as Techites danced in the traditional sports clothes.

LEFT: No loitering in the halls! It looks as if no one has any particular destination.

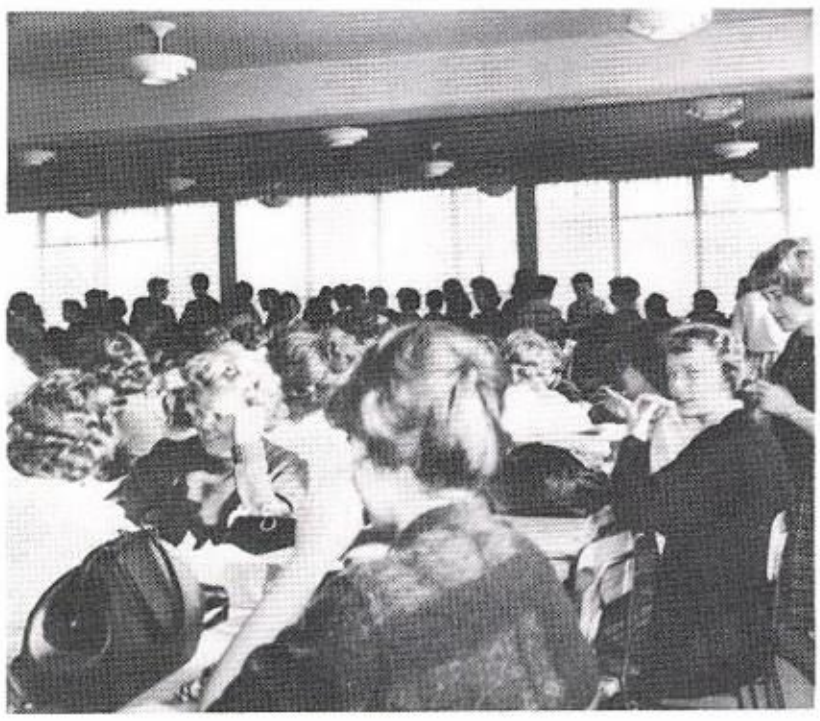
BELOW: Did she catch it? J. Suter is aided by a fellow contact lens wearer (C. Bruton) in the removal of one of the lenses.

LIFE OUTSIDE CLASSES IS FULL OF FUN

What days! People don't realize the struggle we kids go through to survive a seven-hour school day. Classes are hard. But it's not so much the classes, as it is trying to get from one of them to another. Getting an elbow in the ribs or a scrape on the ankle bone is nothing. There's also sometimes a panicky feeling that someone may knock you off balance down the steps.

Those on first and third lunch shift this year have sometimes had to do a little more elbowing than the second shift. Everyone ends up in a congested mess at the north end of first floor. If you aren't in line before the "grace bell" rings you might as well forget it.

But there is consolation for the lunchroom struggles. There are beautiful spring and fall days when we can jam food into our pockets, go out, and sit on the lawns and soak in sunshine.



The picture typifies the lunchroom scene at a table occupied by girls.

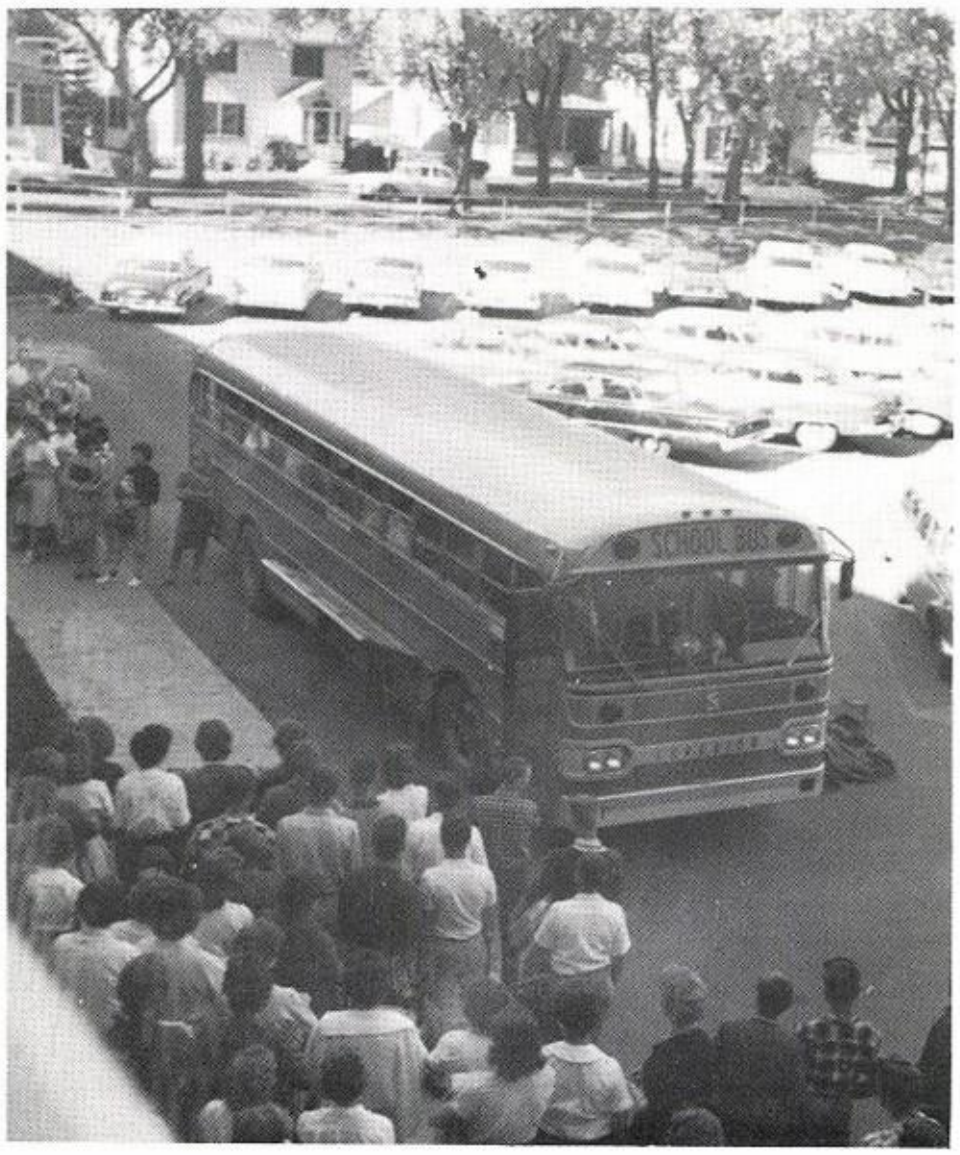
BELOW: The lunch period allows time for relaxation in the warm fall weather.

These are preoccupied boys at lunch.



The entire student body congregates for a pep fest in the parking lot to send the football players off to their game at Duluth.

IT SNOWED

. . . AND SNOWED

. . . AND SNOWED!

"It's like this . . ." John Hedlund gives his noteworthy advice to student teacher, Mrs. J. Pike. He is consulting a cross-word puzzle book.

The orchestra observes the flutists' solo during the annual Christmas concert.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT IS ACTIVE AND VERSATILE

Music has maintained its important role at Tech by providing entertainment for assemblies, pepfests, concerts, and games. The traditional Christmas Concert was highlighted by the performances of the band, orchestra, and choruses. The Madrigal Singers added their rendition of tidings to the festivities too. During the spring months the series of Sunday afternoon concerts was presented to the public. In March the band presented a special concert to raise funds for its trip to Denver, Colorado, during which Doctor Bensecrutti of the University of Minnesota was featured as guest conductor. To top off a successful season, all musical groups joined together to present the annual Spring Concert.

The chorus, evidently not the girls, is thoughtfully, directed by Mr. Dahl.

The pepband walks the halls, playing requests for money to be contributed to the March of Dimes.

FADS AND FASHIONS INVADE TECH

It was once said that women are by nature fashion conscious, but the proper attire may mean much to a resourceful high-school boy. Haircuts are important, the boy with the long greasy hair is shunned. We find that in high school the clean-cut men have the "inside track" in all the activities.

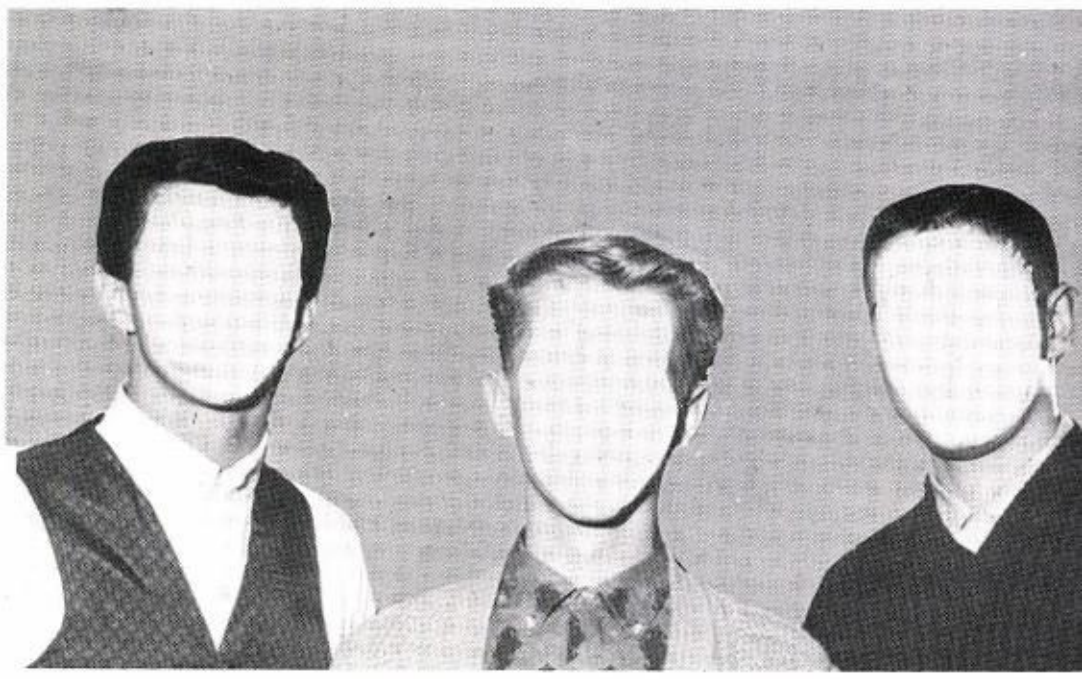
As for the clothing itself, the following is likely to appear in the wardrobe of the fashion conscious Tech boy. No wardrobe is complete without a couple "T-button" cardigans of diminishing shades or "far-out" prints. To go with these you'll need a couple of "button-down collar" shirts, at least one with a "snap-tab" and maybe a "pin-through" or two, preferably made of "oxford-cloth" or good linen.

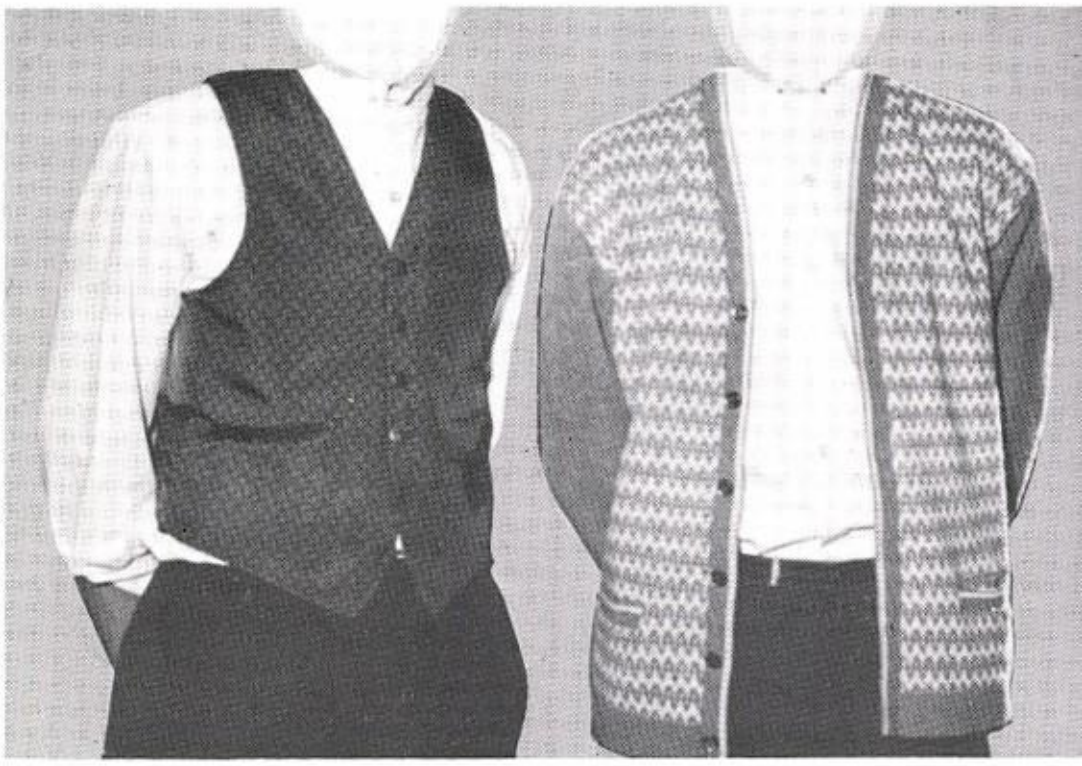
Pleatless pants have been out for some time but more noticeable this year has been the plaid slacks with tapered legs or the tapered-legged trousers of conservative shades to complement the shirt.

Finally to complete the outfit one must have the proper footwear. Black loafers are considered a good stable color to enhance any color scheme, but colors range from burnished olive to burnished brown and may have either the conventional or tapered heel.

The cardigan, white shirt, and narrow tie combination has slowly begun to dominate the techites nightlife.

So as you can see, fashion is a prevelant factor with boys as well as it is with the enticing "femme fatale."





Perhaps one of the most interesting of the fashion trends is evident in the new hairstyles, supposedly started and supported by our First Lady, Jacqueline Kennedy. A tricky process is involved in order to wear the hair in a bouffant, or in an upside down tulip fashion . . . the process is called, appropriately enough, "ratting" or "backcombing."

V-neck sweaters, chiffon scarves, and ruffley, feminine blouses are the fashion this year, and aren't they pretty?

To make her more feminine, a necklace of many strands is added. This is also offset by the short pleated skirt of the day, displaying a shapely leg.

In the line of sportswear, brightly colored plaid or striped slacks, or stretch pants are worn, an eye-catcher at any sports event.

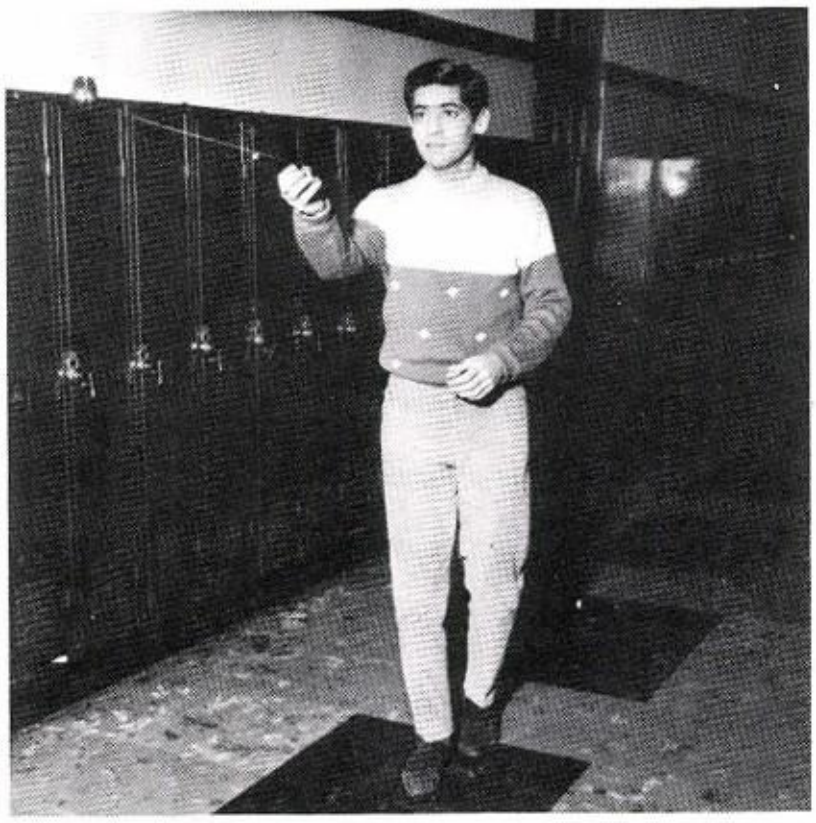
And for the feet? You guessed it. The popular squashed and stacked heels are back this year, to be combined with the "platapus" square toe.

The Jackie Kennedy style is also popular in outdoor wear this year, including cut-off sleeves, flared coat bodies, and large, stand-up collars adorned with long, gathered gloves. There are long masses of fur for the head, while on the opposite end, the high warm boot with heels is worn.

It's hard to say how long these fashions will be popular. Why not look in next year's annual and see?

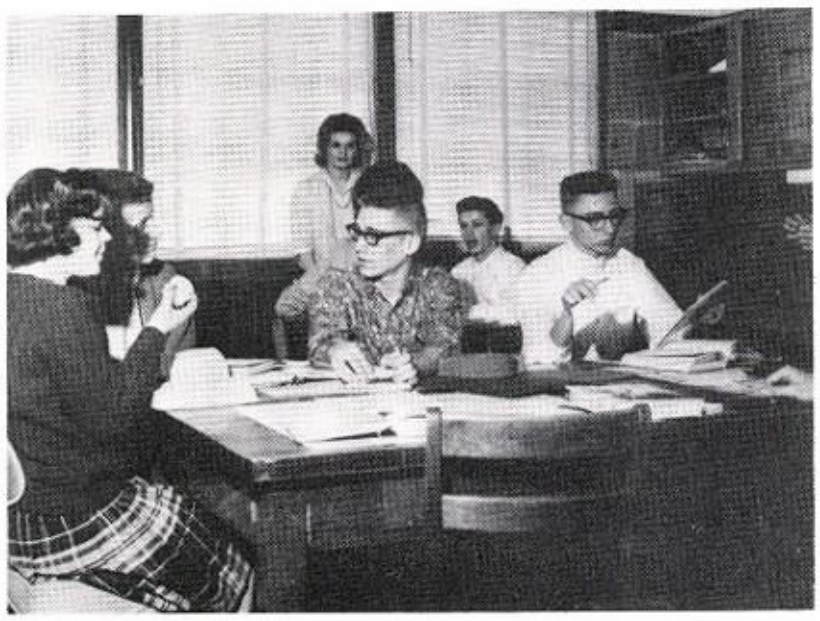
Ski Club members M. Peterson, K. Lohmann, J. Puhl and B. Thole can't wait to get on the ski slopes after the first snow. A snowman is the temporary satisfaction during school hours.

Hunger pains — B. Kimble, G. Swanson, M. Bensen, J. Bartlett, J. Miller, D. Schauer are "hurrying" to lunch.



One of the popular activities in the fall was working yo-yos. Khalid Whyne was one of the apt yo-yoest.

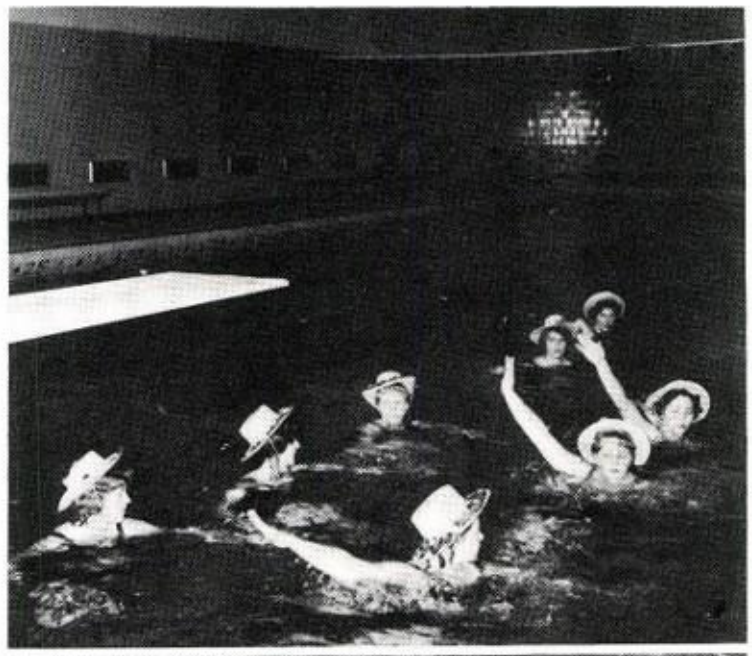
Teachers gather daily after school for coffee in the cafeteria. Wonder what they talk about?

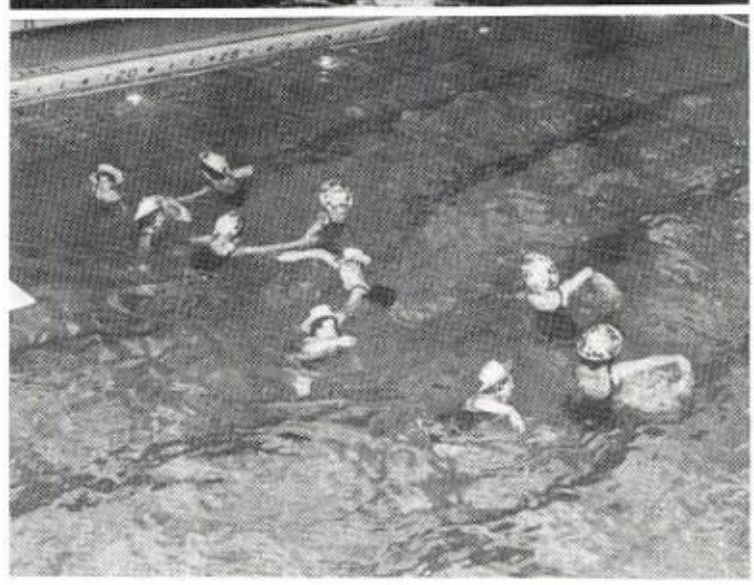


The staff room is always active during the third lunch period Seniors congregate there to study and chat.

TECHITES FIND ENJOYMENT IN ALL ASPECTS OF SCHOOL LIFE

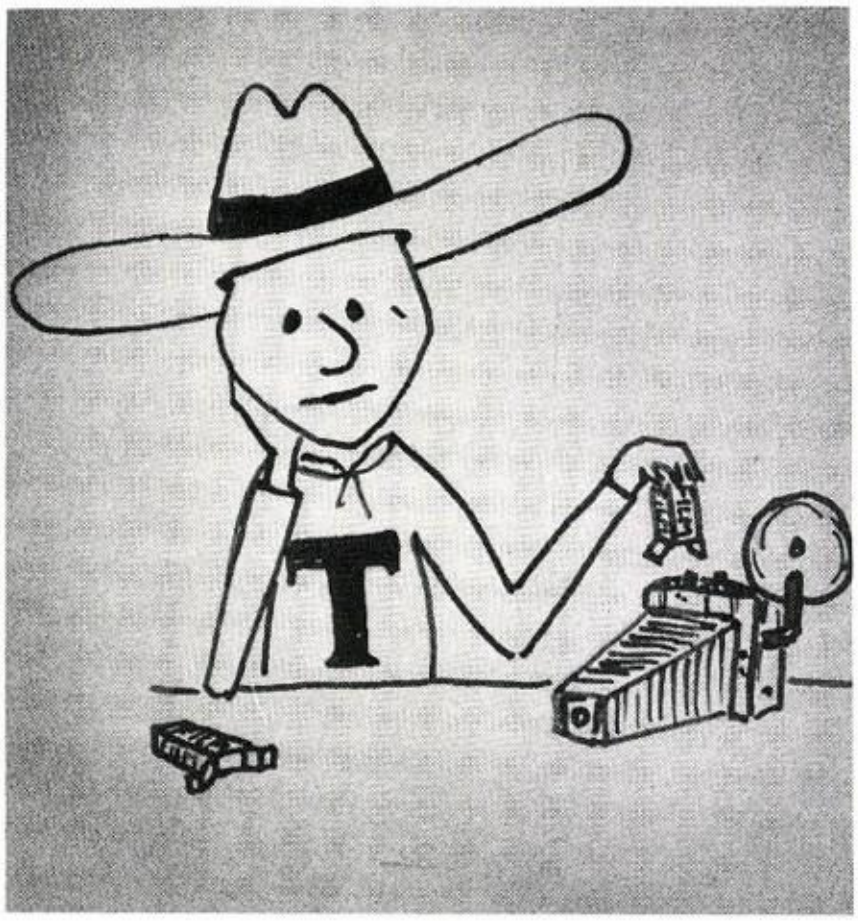
N. Shay and D. Plombon demonstrate the country's newest dance craze, "The Twist". It has been rapidly picked up by Tech students.





The Aquatic Club is shown practicing for their annual swimming show in the spring. The spacious pool at South Junior High allows the girls to work out more elaborate synchronized patterns.

What is it? What else but the display of class rings from which the juniors had to make their selection.



Due to circumstances beyond our control, there will be no pictures of the 1961 Sno Ball. Friend Techson displays the action that didn't take place. Needless to say there was no film in the camera. Sorry!

SPECIAL

The occurrence of many events, days, projects, ect. makes life at Tech more "spicy"; it makes our school special.

Homecoming and All Sports Day are the largest and most popular events of the year because they involve the most people. Various other special events may run from the Sadie Hawkins Dance to a regional wrestling tournament here.

It would be difficult for all the special projects to include the entire student body. Many of the individual organizations have projects of their own — working for scholarships, going on trips, ect. A Taste good? D. Voigt seems to think so. He is munching on popcorn made by the AFS committee to raise funds for a second exchange student.

Watch him Mr. Erdman! This tricky move took place in the basketball game between the Faculty All Stars and the Harlem Diplomats. The game, sponsored by the Lettermen's Club, was a great success, but the All Stars lost.

EVENTS

very important event in this category is the band's trip to Denver, Colorado.

New events at Tech this year included the English department's Creative Writing Day, when all English classes wrote creatively. A revised Apple for the Teacher Day turned into an Apple for the Staff Day, including janitors and cooks now. A most important day of the year was the February orbital flight of Col. John Glenn. The school television provided the interested student body and faculty with details.

Busy members of the Bulletin board committee plan a display for interesting books in the library. Members include J. Eich, K. Solinger, S. Jackson, G. Carpenter, A. Putnam.

Dede Jones intently plays the bells for the band at a basketball game. The occasion was Orange and Black Day at Tech.

The overcrowded situation at Tech was photographed to promote interest in the bond issue that was to be voted upon. Fortunately the issue passed.

THE END OF THREE L-O-N-G YEARS!

Due to existing circumstances the seniors failed to have a float in the homecoming parade. They do pride themselves, however, on the fact that their float was used extensively to haul cardboard for the bonfire and was also used as the emcee's rostrum at the street dance.

The Senior Class started money raising projects the first part of March. Among them was the fact that they were given custody of the jail at the infamous school carnival.

The caps and gowns were completely white and several were under the impression that they were incongruent with the entirety of the class.

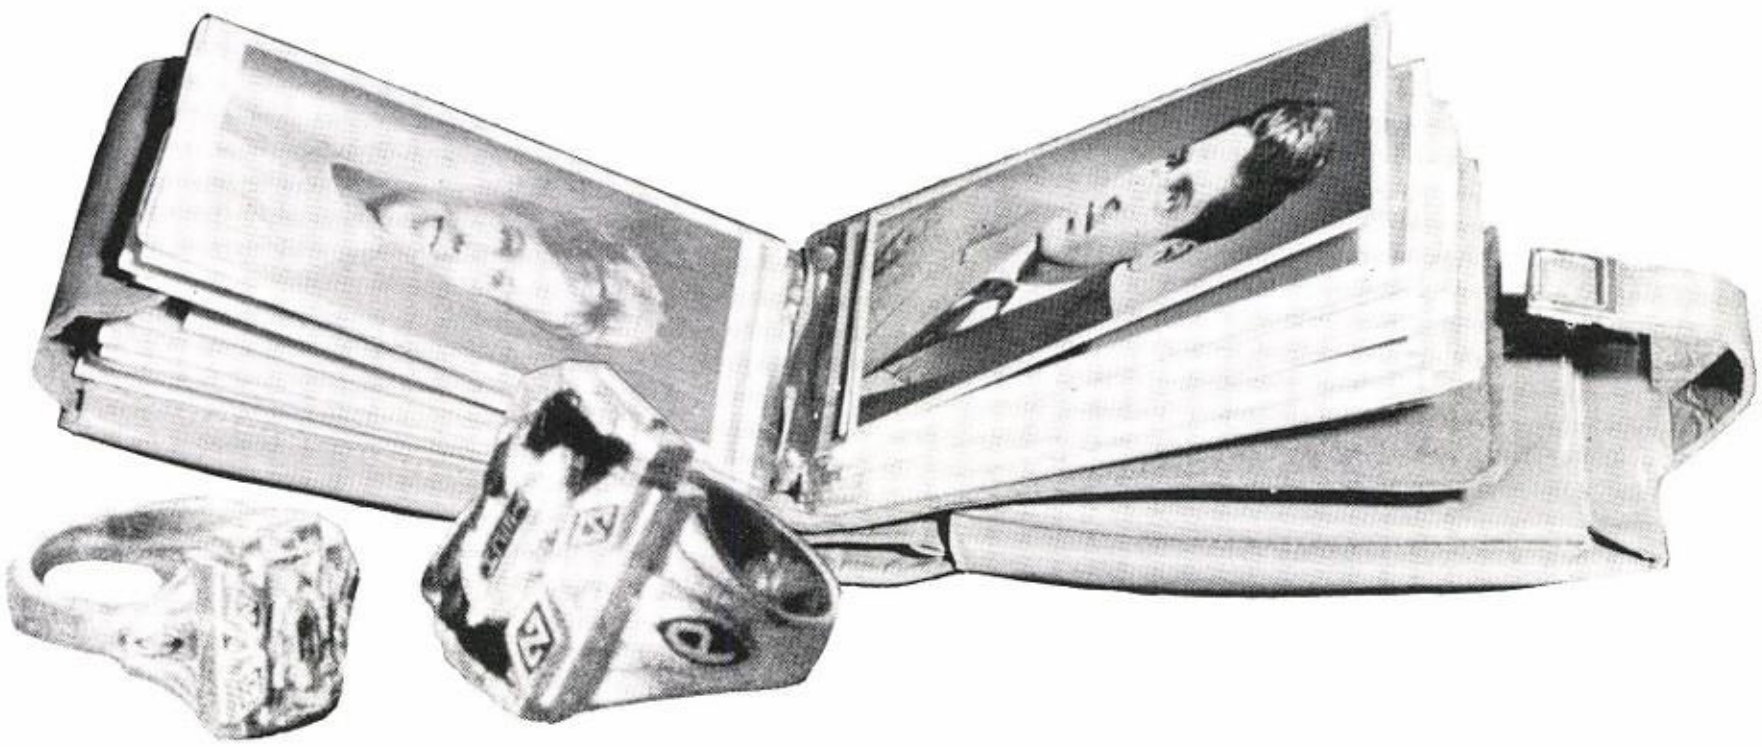
There it is! June 7, 1962 — the day seniors have waited three years for. P. Billig, J. Bartlett and B. Milner check the calendar as the expanse of days to graduation shortens.



Traditional symbols of the senior classes at Tech are the class ring, chosen by the individual class in its junior year, and the "swap" pictures, exchanged with classmates. These items provide a lasting memory of life at Tech.

TECH IS ELECTED AS NEW STATE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council: FRONT ROW: K. Backes, R. Youel, J. Miller, V. Hjollund, B. Johnson, S. Donaldson, M. Lacher, M. Muldoon, J. Milhaupt, J. Athman, K. Wherle, S. Millett, P. Theiler, G. Massiff, J. Ayers, K. Cox, N. Wenlund, P. Riecken, C. Johnson. ROW 2: J. Paulson, K. Wyne, M. Schlict.

The student government at Tech is the student council made up of representatives of each homeroom, class presidents, members of standing committees and the officers elected by vote of the student body.

There are three main powers operating the student council; the student body, constitution, and administration. The homeroom representatives may voice the opinions of those they represent through homeroom discussion of the weekly meetings. But in order for any council to be effective, the student body must take an active part in their council and voice their opinion.

Our student council has been very busy this year. In addition to sponsoring the Homecoming activities, the Snoball, All Sports Day, and various other special days and events, the council also worked hard on other projects. Among these projects was the revision of the constitution, which was very much needed.

Urquhart.

The Student Council was elected president of the Central Minnesota Association of Student Councils and President of the Minnesota Association of Student Councils. The group then elected Jim Hurd and John Colomy as president of these organizations respectively.

We also arranged for speakers for the 1962 MASC Convention. In order to have a more effective council, the members of student council were given two evaluation sheets, one was filled out during Christmas Vacation, and the other was filled out in May. From these evaluations we tried to find out what the council members expected from council, and to find out why they were or were not participating in their student council.

Our student council strives to maintain the respect of the student body and the administration, to do the best possible job that we can. It is hoped that future councils at Tech may benefit from some of the projects and activities of this year's council.

Mr. Bettendorf and Miss Pat Hill are the much appreciated advisors for Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In order to carry on more activities in student council, various committees are set up to organize ideas. The eight standing committees and eight additional committees serve the school and the students by providing the "Said and Done" handbook, supervising the halls and study halls, planning the homecoming events, providing transportation for away games, planning for dances, selling concessions, supervising charity drives, and much more. These committees are to help the council as well as the student body, and many of these committees are made up of members outside of council.

DEBATERS MAINTAIN LEAD

"Resolved: That the federal government should provide additional aid to public school facilities." This has been the topic of debate throughout the state of Minnesota over the past year. The Tech team, too, has fought this proposition. Maintaining sanity through his third year was their intrepid coach, Mr. Jambeck. In his spare time, he teaches English.

This year's "A" team held one senior, Bob Asleson, with two years of experience. His negative partner was junior, Jim Thies. The affirmative team was led by juniors Margaret Powelson and Leigh Homstead. Though inexperienced, the team has done very well.

Debate provides an opportunity not only for public speaking but also for development of argumentation. It trains the debater to be clear and concise in his statements and provide him with much pleasure.

TECHSON HELPS UNIFY YEARBOOK

Work on the Techoes began early last fall, with the designing of the Annual cover and general lay-out patterns.

As the year progressed, the yearbook staff found a larger and more difficult job on their hands.

A new idea has been introduced to the student body this year. This is the use of a cartoon character (in this case, Techson) as a bond for the organization of different divisions of the yearbook. As of now, however, it has not been decided if Techson will become a permanent fixture of the Techoes.

This year's editor is Mary Lacher, who works with the staff of seniors under the guidance of Mr. Donald Nelson, advisor. Funds that were produced to finance the yearbook were made by the profits from the "Techoes Dance", a dance given to the Annual staff by the Student Council. An assembly was also presented by the staff homeroom to publicize its project.

Techites enjoy reminiscing as they page through the yearbook, remembering the fun they experienced in past years.

The Journalism class, under the direction of Mr. John Coyle, has gained much experience in the line of newspaper work this year.

Faced with a group of eager juniors, Mr. Coyle proceeded to teach the process of sizing pica sheets, and writing news and feature stories.

When they had gained sufficient experience, the "junior journalists" produced their own edition of the school newspaper. Gracefully and reluctantly, the regular Tech staff bowed out, turning authority over to the juniors, who then published the newspaper issue.

Besides putting out these junior issues, the Journalism class was given assignments from the Tech staff to write articles, in addition to Mr. Coyle's assignments to help the students improve their creative writing ability.

TECH STAFF RUSHES TO GET PAPER ON TIME

Mr. Coyle brings out several points of interest as he discusses one of the issues of The Tech with co-editors, M. Cairns and B. Hoehl.

D. Weismann, and J. Colomy as photographers of Techoes and The Tech discuss the school's camera.

The chief duty of the Tech staff is to see that the monthly paper gets out on time. In order to do this, there is much to be done such as gathering of material for articles, taking of pictures, typing of the articles and then, of course, sending everything to the printers. After each publication things relax a little, but then it's back into the swing of things in order to get the next big important issue out.

Everyone is assigned to a beat, where they regularly check on everything happening in that section of the school system.

The staff's new project was making a student telephone directory. The name, address, telephone number, homeroom number, and grade for every student in Tech is given in it.

TECHNICANA GIVES STUDENT CHANCE TO EXPRESS FEELINGS

The Technicana Staff produces Tech's literary magazine, the Technicana. Every fall this staff is organized and divided into three committees; the editorial board, the literary board, and the art board.

After choosing a chairman for each board, plus an editor or co-editors to preside over all three committees, the boards go to work.

Each staff member is required to get written material from his assigned teacher. After this material is collected, it goes to the literary board, where it is sifted and either accepted or discarded, according to the appeal of the story or poem.

If the story is approved by the literary board, it goes to the editorial board, where it is corrected for grammatical and spelling errors. By then, if the staff still accepts the story, it is sent to the art board, which then illustrates some part of the plot or character of the story.

Mr. Peterson looks over promising articles with co-editors, V. Larson and D. Hertzberg.

Mr. Ames Dahl has done much to develop the great enthusiasm of every student in chorus here at Tech. At the top of the public school's choruses is the Senior Chorus composed of Junior and Senior boys and girls. The group recorded a record and took a trip in the spring.

The Sophomore mixed Chorus had definitely proven their ability at different performances. The Girls' Glee Club was larger than it has ever been. It is composed of Junior girls who enjoy singing.

All three groups performed at the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, and the Pop Concert.

Tech has much to offer in the field of music. Under the capable direction of Mr. Ames Dahl, Mr. James Johnson, and Mr. Erwin Hertz our vocal and instrumental organizations have much to be proud of. Within these groups, however, smaller groups have had enough ambition to get started.

The Techniques is the barbershop quartet made up of four senior girls. They started singing in the middle of their sophomore year for school functions only. Since then they have appeared at organizations outside of school also.

Three senior boys got together several times in the junior year to play their instruments and sing along with them. When students heard the trio, they liked them so much that the boys, now called the Gentlemen Three, sing often at school affairs as well as outside engagements.

The Madrigal group is made up of juniors, both boys and girls, who enjoy singing the light madrigal type music.

The junior boys quartet is at its second year at Tech. They feature barbershop as well as negro spiritual music.

The sophomore girls quartet consists of a vocal trio with a pianist accompanying. They have just started this year.

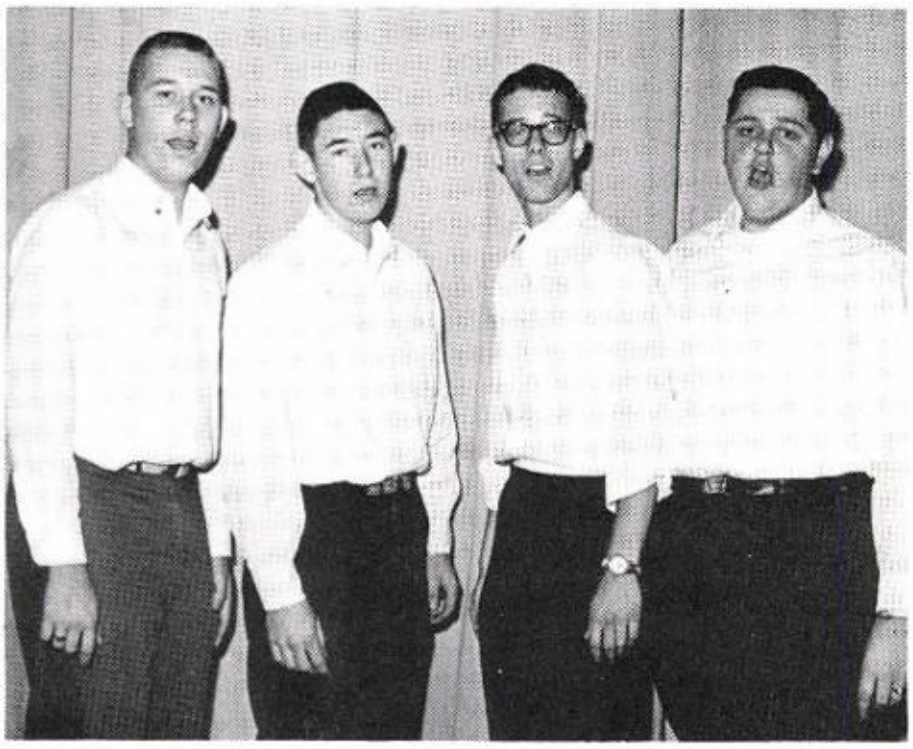
Games and some assemblies would seem rather dull without the pep band to liven things up. All of the members are in the Tech band.

Orchestra also has a smaller group of which it is very proud. The string quartet add much enjoyment as well as that extra touch to many concerts.

The Pep Band gives the team a real rousing send off in the parking lot before they leave to play an out-of-town game.

J. Moore, B. Sefkow, S. Emery, and M. Stemm take a good look at the music for their string quartet.

The girls quartet; S. Engel, S. Emmery, C. Haugen, and M. Stemm take time out from practice to pose for a picture.



G. Swanson, M. Sundby, L. Homstad, and B. Kimball sing their barbershop quartet music.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT IS ONE OF BANDS BIG EVENTS

The performing year of 1961 - 62 began even before the school year for the Tech band. Several days before classes convened at Tech High the band journeyed to Minneapolis to participate in the music program of the annual 1961 Minnesota State Fair.

Although the weather was not always conducive to successful practices the band entertained the crowds attending the football games with music from the stands and on the field.

The concert band made its first appearance at the annual Christmas Concert and through the remaining months took part in a series of Sunday afternoon concerts open to the public, in which certain sections of the band were featured in special numbers. At one such concert the director of the University Band was guest conductor.

ORCHESTRA PROVES TO BE ONE OF TECH'S FINEST ORGANIZATIONS

Mr. Johnson gives added attention to the string section of the orchestra.

Mr. James Johnson is the much appreciated orchestra leader.

The orchestra does its practicing during its special homeroom period.

Each morning strains of music echoing through the lower regions of Tech have been heard coming from the diligent rehearsals of the orchestra. Orchestra members have a homeroom of their own, the only one at Tech containing sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Under the capable direction of Mr. James Johnson, the complete orchestra rehearses twice a week at 8:00 a.m., with sectional rehearsals on the remaining days.

The highlight of the season for the orchestra was the Christmas concert. It also performed at the spring concert where selections especially familiar to all were played.

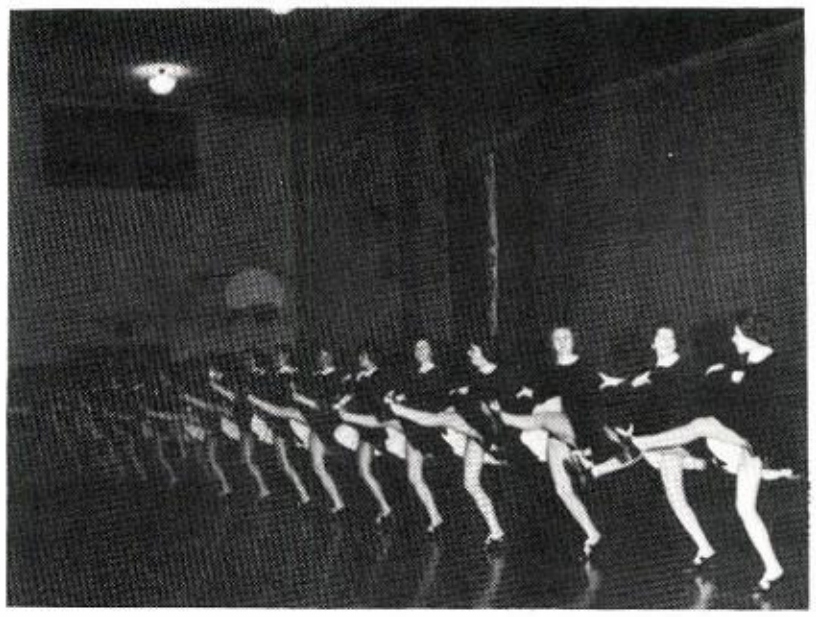
Five years ago a group called the Tigerettes was formed; they specialized mainly in tap and chorus line routines. The group danced at various sports events and school functions. This year, following tradition, eighteen girls were chosen to represent Tech by dancing with the Tigerettes. But the group has broadened its scope; besides chorus line routines, the girls have learned precision routines with orange and black pom-poms and dancing with canes.

This year the group was comparitively inexperienced with thirteen new members. Under the co-managership of Neide Cater and Barbara Krause and supervision of Miss Schwartzbauer the Tigerettes learned many new dances.

Their first appearance was the half time show of the Dad's Day game. They continued entertaining through the basketball season and represented Tech at the sub-district and district tournaments. The Tigerettes finished their performing season with the All School Carnival where the girls presented an original show. The year officially ended with a picnic.

The group has practiced diligently throughout the school year but they have received much satisfaction and enjoyment from representing their school.



The girls often perform for the audience during half time at basketball games. They also danced during the half of one football game, danced in the Homecoming parade, and gave their annual carnival show.

C. Thompson proves to her fellow Tigerette members that even though she is a new member, she can still teach them a couple of things.

AQUATIC CLUB FEATURES SHOW IN NEW POOL

The Aquatic Club's annual show was given this year in the new pool at South Jr. High School. The music of the "Waters of the World" formed the theme as interpreted by the girls. Each girl worked out the choreography for her own number. The costumes were designed by the members of the Aquatic Club. Miss Killeen advised the group throughout the year.

South Jr. High started an Aquatic Club of their own this year under the direction of Miss Neibor. With long practices and hard work the junior high girls added three good numbers to this year's show program and joined the Tech girls in the Finale for the final touch to an evening of enjoyable performances.

A record-breaking crowd viewed the show on all three nights — Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

CLUBS PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT

Because of the abundance of snow this year the ski club was able to be exceptionally active. It featured a trip to Michigan which proved to be great fun for all those who were able to partake in the event. Besides going out to Powder Ridge, it sponsored a booth at the carnival.

The Chess Club at Tech met every Tuesday after school with Mr. Brenden, their advisor. An inter-school tournament is held every year in which any student at Tech is eligible to play. This year the club played St. Cloud State College. Playing chess proved to be great fun as well as a worthwhile hobby.

CLUBS DEVOTE TIME TO SERVE OTHERS

Vice President K. Krueger, Secretary-Treasurer P. Cook, and President C. Johnson busily prepare for Sadie Hawkins.

Again this year, the Art Club created many artistic decorations for the special events at Tech — Homecoming, Sadie Hawkins, the Snowball, the Christmas program, and the Spring Formal. Under the leadership of Carol Johnson, their president, the enthusiastic group used their imagination to produce these distinctive designs. They were allotted a certain amount of money by the Student Council for the materials they used.

Membership in the club is based primarily on the willingness that the students show when helping with the various projects.

Mr. Anderson, the Art teacher here at Tech, is the advisor for the club.

The Junior Red Cross is a good example of our Techites interest in the welfare and happiness of others. The main projects of the club this year were sending a school chest to some foreign land, promoting the Red Cross enrollment drive for the needy at home and abroad, and entertaining the youngsters at the Children's Home. President Charlene Uthe and Miss Pat Hill, the advisor, helped keep the students active with worthwhile projects.

International Relations Club was organized this year for the purpose of bettering relations between the United States and foreign countries. President Judy Beaulieu and Miss Klein, advisor, proposed new and different projects for IRC members. WORTHY SENIOR IS GIVEN FIFTY DOLLAR SCHOLARSHIP BY TEACHERS NEEDED TOMORROW

Teachers Needed Tomorrow, better known as TNTer's here at Tech have been very busy this year. With a grand membership of twelve, the club raised money for their annual fifty-dollar scholarship by holding bake sales and booths at the school carnival. Not truly a mercenary group, we also had speakers, filmstrips, movies, and activities around St. Cloud. In the fall various members helped out at Wilson Grade School; all throughout the year each TNTer is assigned to a teacher to help in any number of ways. Another interesting activity was the District Future Teachers of America Convention which was held at St. Cloud State College in October.

The officers for the 1961 year were J. Athman, D. Roberts, K. Solinger, and N. Stephans. They have a unique way of choosing their officers. A new group is chosen at the beginning of the second semester of every year. Then these officers hold their positions for the next two semesters. The advisors are Miss O'Rourke and Mr. Bonkowski.

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization which is open for membership to all girls who have had home economics. The overall goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family and community living, now and in the future. Projects worked on this year were Safety and Civil Defense.

Future Farmers of America is also a national organization for boys planning on entering some branch of agriculture. Some of them had money making projects such as raising crops while others had a partnership with businessmen.

The National Honor Society, commonly known as N.H.S., is an honorary organization to give recognition to students who show outstanding qualifications in the fields of Leadership, Scholarship, Character, and Service. The society itself was founded in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals, and it has grown into an organization of more than 3,500,000 members with its headquarters in Washington D.C. A student, to be eligible, must rank in the upper one-third of his class and as already mentioned, must be outstanding in Leadership, Scholarship, Character, and Service. Only fifteen percent of the class may be elected as members; and they are elected by the combined effort of both their fellow classmates and the faculty. The society sponsors several projects each year to raise funds for its treasury. Its most effective one is the selling of pep ribbons. This also helps promote school spirit. The money goes into a scholarship, which is given at the end of the year to the senior who best symbolizes the ideals of the society. The scholarship usually amounts to one-hundred dollars. The organization has Mr. Brendon as its advisor.

In order for a student to be in Quill and Scroll he must have had 50 column inches of his works published, be in the top third of his class, and must be approved by the Board of Publications. This is strictly an honorary organization for those who are active in a journalistic line, such as the TECH, or TECHOES. New members are inducted in the spring at a Board of Publications dinner.

Another honorary group for students to be in is Senior Gregg Artists, which is for business students who are outstanding in stenographic skills. To be qualified for membership, the student must pass eighty words a minute with ninety-five percent accuracy. Certificates for speed and accuracy in shorthand, and typing are given and timings are taken to help improve these skills. During the year such projects as studying income tax and taking office dictation were undertaken by the students. The aim of the organization is to encourage, through various skills, well-qualified secretaries.

CLUBS FOR STUDENTS WITH VARIOUS INTERESTS

Tech's music club, officially called the Record Club for lack of a better name, has gotten together each Friday after school for the past two years. The group began because several students were interested in learning more about music — jazz, romantic, nationalistic, classical, American, and even some opera.

Composers from Bach to Tchaikovsky, Bartok to Debussy have been talked about and listened to. While the group studies what it pleases, an attempt is made to keep the composers of each school of music together. Depth in studying each composer is difficult because of the limited amount of time. As one member of the club put it, "We try to study as many composers as we can as thoroughly as possible."

The main event of the Minnesota Diversified Vocation Club is that of sponsoring an annual dinner for the members employers. The students participating in the club are those who are on the part time program.

The Photo Club is for those students who are interested in developing their own pictures as well as studying sights that are photogenic. This year they took several trips to St. John's in order to photograph the scenery and the architecture. They also took a trip to Minneapolis to visit the Art Gallery.

Tech would not be run quite so smoothly if it were not for the groups of students who give of their time to aid the teachers and maintain order in the school.

The student study hall monitors have the responsibility of keeping a quiet atmosphere advantageous to studying. The hall patrol likewise is to maintain solitude and order in the halls. If students misbehave under their jurisdiction, they are referred to the Ethics Committee.

The bus patrol is an organization recently inducted at Tech. It is necessary that it is made up of responsible students who will see that the buses load and unload in an orderly manner. They do everything in their power to protect the safety of students whenever the duty calls them.

Library aids are present in the library every class hour and before school to assist students and to help manage the library. Among their duties are the circulation of books, monitoring students, handling passes and shelving books.

Although the office messengers thought they were getting out of a study hall, they found themselves in the midst of quite a bit of work. Their main duty is to deliver personal messages to both students and faculty.

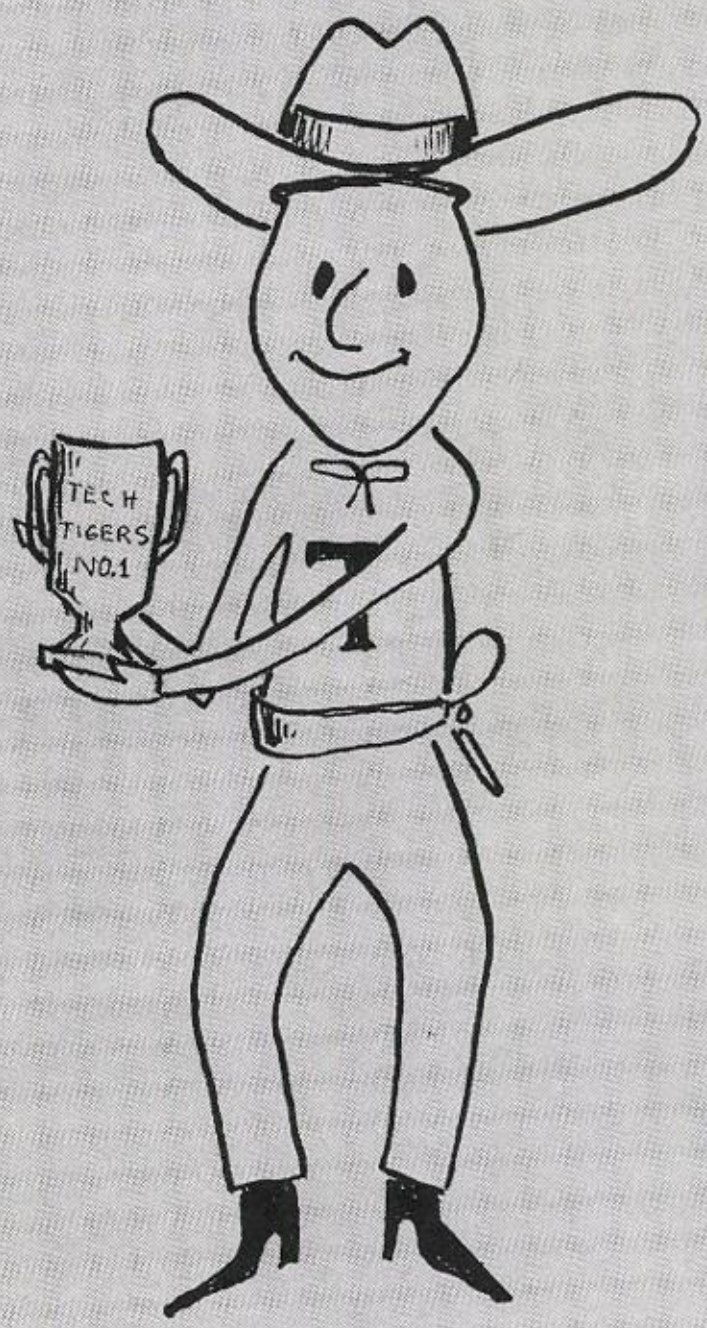
ATHLETICS



TIGERS CLAIM CHAMPIONSHIP, UNDEFEATED YEAR, STATE RATING.

A determined group of Tigers took the field to meet a strong Osseo team in the first game of the season. They came off with an impressive 40 to 12 win and a taste for victory. The St. John's Preps fell to the Tech Tigers the next week. A huge homecoming crowd saw a tough Tech defense stop a dangerous Brainerd team and come away with a 19 to 6 win over the Tech rival. With a taste of blood the Tigers rolled over Crosby Ironton, 48 to 0, and went up to Duluth to play a top-ranking Duluth Central team. A hard-hitting offense and a defense that rose to the occasion, cheered on by a large Tech following, brought home a 19 to 18 victory. Staples also met defeat at the hand of the Tigers. A big Little Falls team bowed to a Tiger offense that was said to be one of the best in the state. Tech trounced Aitkin to finish the season with an undefeated, untied record, the first in fifteen years, and the conference championship, the first since 1957. The Tech Tigers were ranked one of the top five teams in the state. Those individuals given state-wide acclaim were Phil Rogosheske, Bill Schmitt, Wayne Lenzmeier, and Coach Don Nylund.

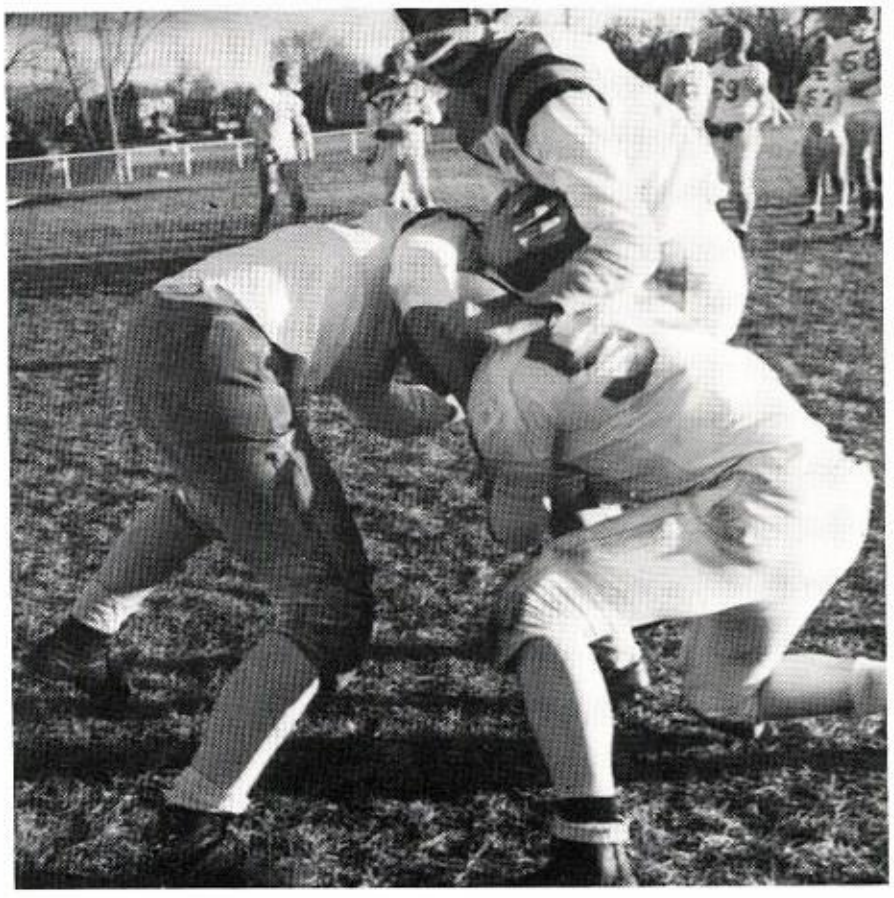
"B" TIGERS SEE WINNING SEASON

Tech's "B" squad opened with a tough opponent, Alexandria, and came from behind to win. This season's record for Tech was five wins and one loss; the one loss being to Cathedral. Another Cathedral game which was cancelled was the cause of the "B" team season being one game shorter than usual. This record of wins is evidence of the "B" squad's ability to play a good offensive game as well as a good defensive game.

An unusually large number of squad members played in "B" team games this year in comparison to other years. This was due to the depth of the squad which provided several players for each position.

"The size and weight of players was above average," commented Coaches Sell and Luckemeyer. They added, "The team exhibited fine spirit, and the lack of speed was made up for in desire and in long hours of practice."



Members of the "B" squad prepare for coming games.

ERDMAN'S TIGERS COMPLETE SEASON WITH A 12 WIN 6 LOSS RECORD

The hustling Tigers from St. Cloud Tech closed the regular season's campaign in the same fine winning fashion they started it. Except for one or two rare instances, the Tigers were never outhustled. This team was out to win every ballgame and really played for keeps as their record clearly indicates. Under the guidance of one of the state's finest coaches, each member was instilled with a keen desire to win, so necessary for a winning team.

The Tigers usually had seven men in the double figures, with Wayne Lenzmeier and Phil Rogosheske contributing most heavily. Lenzmeier ended as the teams top point producer with a near 18 point average, while Rogosheske followed close with a 13 point average per game. Bob Dodgson, Bill Lachelt, Lloyd Knoblach, Bruce Talbert and sophomore Mark Haverland each had high scoring nights, fine rebounding and good all around games. Two of the Tigers losses were at the hands of a quick Brainerd team. Both times, however, the Tigers were challenging the Warriors who were maintaining a No. 1 position till the final gun.

Much action is displayed as the Tech bucketmen fight for the ball.

MATMEN WIN DISTRICT TITLE

This year's team of Tiger matmen had a successful season, ending with a 12-3 record. They lost three matches to tough teams from Robbinsdale, Anoka, and Brainerd. The grapplers collected a big win over Hutchinson with a close 24-20 score. The Tigers were behind 20-11 when they went into the last three weights. With one decision and two pins the Tigers came off the mat with a crowd-pleasing victory. The matmen gained important wins over a strong Wilmar team, a formidable Atkin squad, and a previously unbeaten Foley team. Our wrestlers went to Buffalo to keep possession of the District 19 top spot from the toughest competition our district has seen in a long time. Tech went to the Region Five Tournament, which was held in St. Cloud this year, with seven of its wrestlers, Dennis Schmit, Dave Klug, Duane Chrast, Bill Baker, Delroy Miller, Darwin Voigt, and Dave Weihrauch. The Tigers were second only to Robbinsdale in the regional tourney and sent five representatives to the state meet. They were Dennis Schmit, Dave Klug, Duane Chrast, Delroy Miller, and Darwin Voigt.

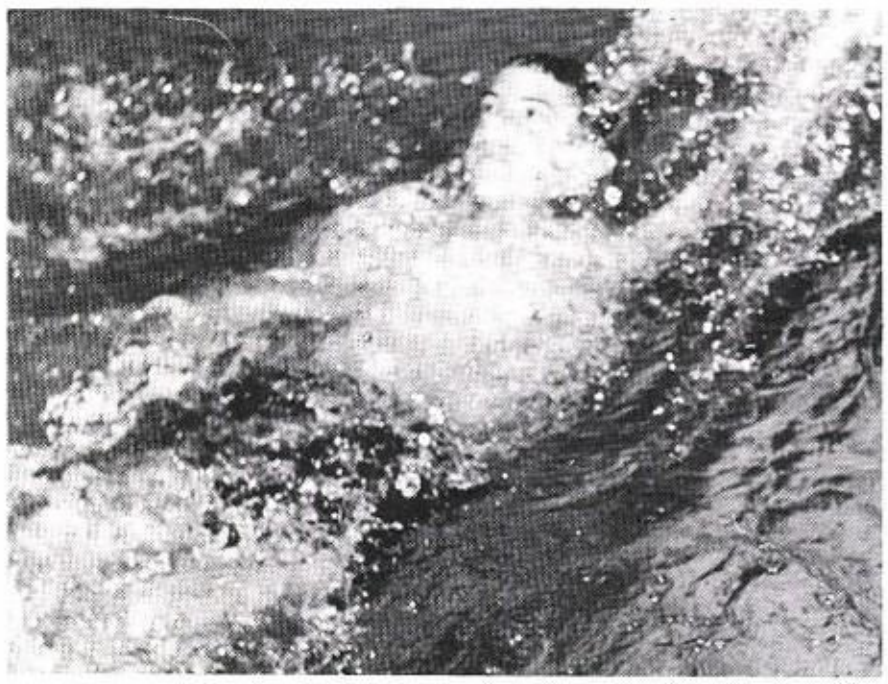
SWIMMERS FINISH FINE SEASON

During the past three or four years, Tech has seen the coming of a new sport, competitive swimming. Due to the lack of facilities, the sport had not measurably improved until this year. Now, due to the new South Junior High pool and the increased number of swimmers plus the able coaching of Mr. Chopp, the swimmers have come a long way.

The last three weeks of the season were ones of varied success for the Tigers. The tankers improved their already fine home mark to the present 7-2. However, the Friday night-Saturday morning meet schedule carried throughout the season wore them down and allowed to be beaten on the last two road meets by De LaSalle and Robbinsdale.

The home meets found the mermen handily trouncing Blake and Henry, and closing the season by handing highly respected and favored Fargo a 48-46 defeat. The Tigers made their season record 9-7 with about five boys entering the State meet.

The swimming Tigers have swum many difficult opponents this season, beating several while losing to others. Every varsity record has been broken several times during the year. Things are looking up and with the junior high program in progress, within a few years, Tech should be one of the tough teams in the state.



Splashman Dean Hoffman pulls hard as he swims to achieve victory.

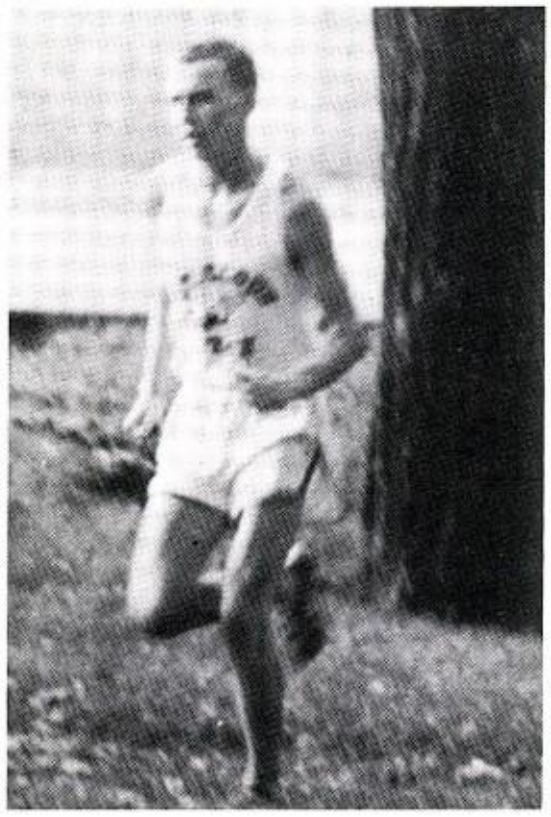
VICTORY MARKS CROSS COUNTRY

This season Coach Bonkowske started out with twenty-four applicants. Later the group was narrowed down to twelve, including Denny Schmit, the sole returner from last year's squad.

Their first encounter was with Princeton in a dual meet at St. Cloud in which they triumphed 21-49 (low score wins). The squad participated next in a 5-team meet at Anoka where they captured third place. Another dual meet was held at Minneapolis Southwest; unfortunately Tech was defeated 36-20. On October 4 and 11, they seized two consecutive wins over Albany. This final success entitled the group to take part in the regional meet on October 17.



Distance ace Dennis Schmit grinds out a hard earned victory in Cross Country competition.

TENNISMEN KEEP WIN STREAK

The Tech tennis team continued on its winning way in 1961 by completing another undefeated season with a 4 - 0 record. The last victory over St. John's extended their winning streak to twelve games in the past two seasons. The high point of that year's activities sent Don Negaard into the state tournament. Unfortunately he was injured early in the contest and lost. The winning unit for the '61 season consisted of Don Negaard, Mike Sunby, Duane Elmquist, Don Olson, and Jim Pelissier.

Mac Doane, their coach, voices fair expectations as he looks forward to the return of lettermen Mike Sunby, Don Olson, and Jim Pelissier. Their play will be supported by fresh talent from the ranks. Practice will no doubt commence once more as soon as the ice is off the courts.

BATMEN FINISH WITH 6-5 RECORD

The Tech baseball team started its season with a group of boys with great potential. It had eight lettermen returning from the team of the previous year that won the district championship and had lost to the eventual state champs in the final game of the regional tournament. Coach Pat Dolan had hopes of getting that far or farther this year, since the state tournament was to be held in St. Cloud. But Tech was beaten by Buffalo in the semi-final game of the district tournament by a score of 12 to 7.

Tech started the season in a most unusual game. They played Litchfield and the final score was 7 to 7, even though the Tech pitchers hurled a no-hitter. Wildness on pitchers' part and fielding errors led to the tie game which was called because of darkness.

The team completed the year with a 6-5 record, and although they did not go all the way, it was a fairly successful campaign.

A new sport made its appearance into the field of Tech's athletic activities in the spring of 1961. This sport was golf. True to Tech tradition the golf team was determined in its initial attempt to make a showing. The newly instituted golf team proved victorious in the Central Lake Golf Conference. Tech's "swingers" held the lead the entire season. Other teams in the conference are Albany, Buffalo, and Litchfield. Coach, Bob Hary, says he hopes to be able to have an even better team than last year. Those of us who have enjoyed golf during the summer months on our own certainly hope that this newly created sport is on the "up-swing" in popularity.

TECH TRACKMEN TRIUMPH AGAIN

The best way to describe our 1961 cindermen is to use the words of Coach Luckemeyer, "Everybody really came through."

The Tiger thinclads opened with a triangular meet at Litchfield, topping Litchfield and Cokato. From there they went to Little Falls, beating both Little Falls and Staples in the second tri-way event.

The only team to plague the Tigers all season was Robbinsdale. The Robins came out the victors in Class L at the St. John's Invitational Meet as well as in a triangular meet with Anoka and Tech.

Our Tigers copped the Central Six Conference and District 19 titles.

To cap the season, after going through the regionals, the cindermen sent two juniors to the State Meet, Phil Rogosheske in the high jump, and Wayne Lenzmeier in the 440, with Phil taking a second place.

Tiger standouts were co-captains Dave Buelow and Maynard Schuldt, seniors Tom Antil, Dick Clayton, John Kropp, and Dwain Pilantz, juniors Phil Rogosheske, Wayne Lenzmeier, Dennis Schmidt, and John Laughlin, and sophomore Hank Uberecken.

Due to much potential, high competitive spirit, and the ability and experience of Coaches Don Klein and Dick Luckemeyer, the Tigers had a great season.

"A" SQUAD CHEERLEADERS

Kris Bergh, Melrene Anderson, Joan Larson, Jean Folsom, Sue Millett.

The principle duty of the Tech cheerleaders is to help arouse school spirit, for an enthusiastic student body is an important element to all the Tech teams. Various pep fests are held throughout the year for the student body to show the teams that they are supporting them. These pep fests are led by the cheerleaders.

Tech cheerleaders are divided into two groups, the "A" and "B" squad. The "A" squad is composed of five girls, they may be either juniors or seniors. The "B" squad is composed of five sophomores. Both groups are under the direction and advice of Miss Kathleen Killen. The cheers are led at every game by either the "A" or "B" squad cheerleaders

YEAR'S EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES KEEP TECH SENIORS ACTIVE

The most exciting and event-filled year is the third year spent at Tech. So it was this year for the class of 1962. Most activities took on new importance with the senior's realization that these would be their last activities as Tech students. The seniors enjoyed their last Homecoming, Snoball, All Sports' Day and Spring Formal.

Earlier in the school year senior class officers were chosen. These were Mike Cairns, President; Bob Kalscheuer, Vice President; Doris Hertzberg, Secretary; and Barb Krause, Treasurer.

Preparations for graduation were made as early as the junior year with the selection of class rings. A class photographer was chosen and took pictures of each graduate for the annual as well as for their personal use. Measurements were taken for the caps and gowns to be worn at graduation and graduation announcements were ordered during this active year.

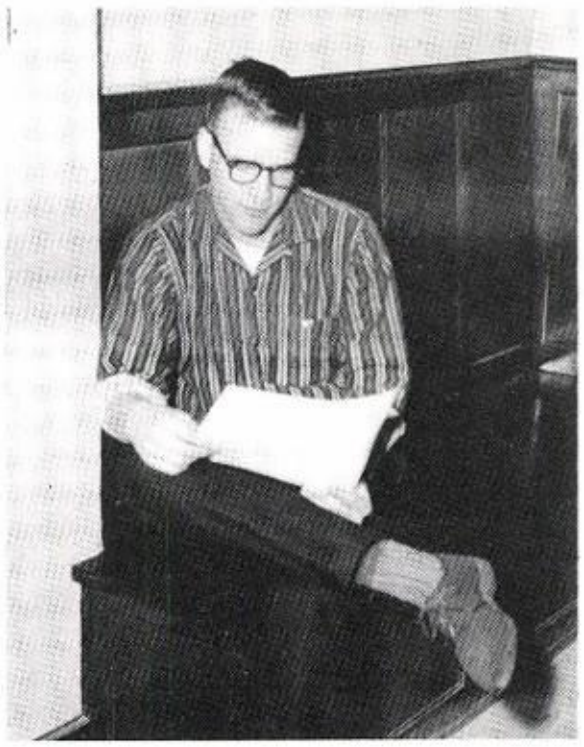
The seniors were given the Mantoux Test again this year. The girls of the class attended the tea given annually each spring for them by the junior girls. Girls' State and Boys' State representatives, during the summer of 1961, were Judy Bartlett and Dick Youel. Every senior took Problems of Democracy, a required course. A lot was studied in this class such as our government and economics.

As was evident this year, it was not an unusual thing that the third year students had an active part in planning the school year's activities. The seniors had the responsibility of leading not only their class but also the entire student body. This was the last time a senior had the opportunity to join his favorite club and participate in his favorite activity as a student of Tech.

As they look ahead to higher ambitions, they will remember this year as their best year at Tech. The memories of their friendships and their accomplishments at Tech will remain with them for many years.

Phil Rogosheski was named to the 1962 All-American High School Football Team.

JoAnn Milhaupt was elected Tech's 1962 Daughter of the American Revolution.



Lee Johnson won the Westinghouse Science Award.

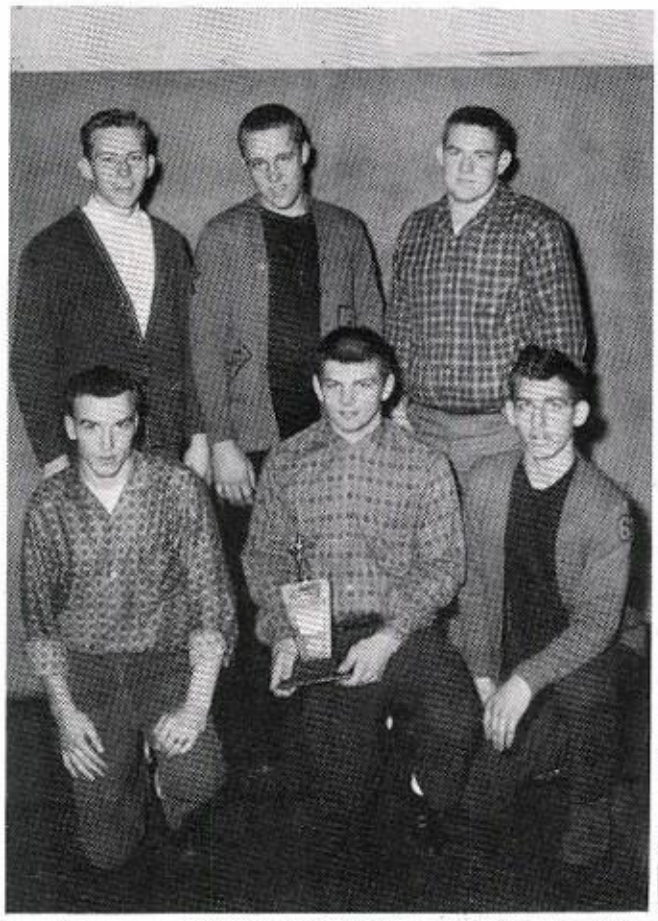
ACTIVITIES OF '62 GRADS

Wrestlers D. Schmit, B. Baker, D. Klug, D. Miller, D. Voight, and D. Weihrauch, (not pictured D. Chrast) all placed first in the District Wrestling meet and helped Tech bring home the trophy. Five of these wrestlers went on to the state meet.



D. Youel and J. Bartlett were elected to represent Tech at Boys' and Girls' State.

Members of the Junior Kiwanis B. Asleson, G. Salmela, B. Dodgson, J. Paulson, P. Meyer, D. Pearson, and B. Mohs meet with St. Cloud businessmen and professionalmen once a week.

Mr. Coyle helps the Tech editors J. Laughlin, B. Hoehl, and M. Cairns with the next edition of the school paper.

In the fall a few senior girls took the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow test. Lynne Schmitz won the test and was chosen as Tech's Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The senior boys on the All Conference Football Team are M. Pappenfus, B. Schmitt, B. Baker, P. Rogosheske, D. Kollman, W. Lenzmeier, and C. Phillips. They were selected from the six conference teams for their outstanding play throughout the football season.

The Junior Rotarians, D. Youel, B. Schmitt, D. Miller, D. Schmit, P. Rogosheske, L. Edgerly, W. Lenzmeier, and Lee Johnson, are a group of boys chosen from the senior class to meet and eat with the St. Cloud businessmen.

The AAUW is an organization of future college girls, elected by the members of their class. This year's members are M. Schlicht, J. Bartlett, M. Bensen, M. Muldoon, J. Milhaupt, D. Hertzberg, B. Krause, K. Solinger, M. Peterson, B. Hoehl, and S. Millett.

Techoes Editors, N. Cater, M. Raiter, M. Lacher, J. Puhl, K. Netz, and M. Anderson, have worked hard all year to meet the annual deadlines. Here they complete their final check before the last pages must be submitted.

TALENT ABOUNDS IN JUNIOR CLASS

With the trials and experiences of their sophomore year behind them, this year's junior class naturally had little adjusting to do. The only things the students found to be different were their new friends, new teachers, and of course, new and difficult subjects. Overcoming the latter proved to be a minor task, as did the reviving of past friendships.

A few weeks after school started, class elections were held. Jim Hurd was elected president; Allen Tank, vice president; Peg Theiler, secretary; and Karen Werhle, treasurer. These officers, along with the junior executive council, have already started planning various activities for their senior year.

The classes were always a topic of discussion. English had to be dealt with this year, as did American History. Four weeks were taken from English class again this year, to be devoted to speech activities.

Journalism, which is an elective course, provided a great deal of interest to many juniors. It also was proved to be quite profitable by the work displayed in their edition of The Tech. They also provided some material for this year's Techoes. Outstanding members of the journalism class were eligible for membership in the Quill and Scroll Club.

In the spring many scholastically high-ranking juniors were selected for membership in the National Honor Society, an organization devoted to encouraging leadership and scholastic ability. Those members who were inducted were required to have shown these qualities throughout the previous years.

Hard work again paid off as the best Homecoming float honors, for the second year in a row, were won by this group. Mr. Coskran, the junior class advisor, had much to do with the success of the float and other activities.

Class rings were selected and then were received late in the school year. They provided still another reminder to the juniors that they have one more year of studies left at Tech.

ENTHUSIASTIC SOPHS ACQUAINTED WITH TECH CUSTOMS

The "Said and Done" and the orientation program were the saviors of the sophomore class this year, for without them they would have had to result to asking seniors, which they considered fatal. Early in the year Mark Haverland was elected president, Nancy Wendlund vice-president, Pat Riecken secretary, and Sharon Engel treasurer. Six new "B" squad cheerleaders were chosen from the sophomore class. Student Council and Executive Council representatives were also elected. The sophomores became acquainted with Tech's proudly claimed activities — Homecoming, Sadie Hawkins, Snoball, All Sports' Day, Spring Formal, and the many assembly programs. Now the sophomores are looking forward to achieving the coveted status of "upperclassmen."

POST GRADUATES CONTINUE EDUCATION

Local and Central Minnesota high school graduates are very fortunate to be able to attend the St. Cloud Area Vocational-Technical School where they can receive training to prepare themselves for successful employment in skilled occupations and be able to rise to positions of greater responsibilities in the field of their chosen occupation.

Students have the opportunity of enrolling in 72 week trade courses in Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Electronics, Graphic Arts or Machine Shop. Courses in Bricklaying, Business Training, Farm Management and Occupational Part-Time Training are also offered in various length courses. A flexibility of operation is maintained at all times.

The school offers up-to-date course offerings and course content, taught by highly skilled, technically trained instructors who use modern shops, tools and specialized equipment.

Instruction in the St. Cloud Area Vocational-Technical School is based on occupational standards as typified by competent workers in that occupation. Job analysis and industry advisory committees are used to assist in determining standards for training. Instruction is given in the necessary skills and the related technical information needed for the occupation.

Entrance requirements are limited to aptitude, physical qualities and interest which should be such that they can profit by the instruction in chosen occupation. Counseling and testing service is available to prospective students to assist them in selecting courses appropriate to their needs, interests and capacities. Residents of the State of Minnesota between the ages of 16 and 21 may attend the St. Cloud Area Vocational-Technical School tuition free if they are high school graduates.

The school accepts placement as part of its responsibility. Close cooperation with industry personnel, employers and union officials is maintained continuously. Placement records testify to the fact that the school is meeting a training need in Minnesota and that the product of the school is well accepted by business and industry.
